ANNOUNCEMENTS

GATHERING

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

“As I live,” says the Lord, “I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but the wicked turn from their ways and live.”

If we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Today we ask ourselves, “Who is my neighbor?” We are called to show mercy, according to the loving will of our merciful God, even as God shows mercy on us.

Silence is kept for reflection.

Most merciful God,

We confess that we have sinned against you –
in our thinking, in our speaking, and in our doing.

The faith and hope which you have given us
have not produced the fruits of love.

Too often we pass by on the other side and we do not love you or our neighbor as we should.

For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us.

Forgive us our sins
and lead us by your Holy Spirit
to the new life you have ordained for us.
In Jesus name we ask this. Amen.

Jesus Christ was given to die for us. In Him we are forgiven.

Amen. Thank you, Lord Jesus.

The Good Samaritan stopped when others passed by.

We shall live like the Good Samaritan and stop to care for those in need.

The Good Samaritan was moved with pity when he saw the man who was robbed and beaten.

We shall live like the Good Samaritan and be filled with compassion toward those who are hurting.

The Good Samaritan took it upon himself to bandage the wounds of the man.

We shall be as the Good Samaritan

The Good Samaritan showed mercy to his neighbor
I shall be like the Good Samaritan show mercy
as well.

Hear the good news:

God so loved the world that God gave the only Son,
so that all may receive life.

This promise is for you!

God embraces you with divine mercy,

✝ forgives you in Christ's name,

and revives you in the Spirit's power,

that we may go forth sharing God's love

as the Good Samaritan shared God's love.

Amen.

PEACE

The presiding minister and the assembly greet each other in the peace of the risen Christ.

The peace of Christ be with you always.

And also with you.

*The people may greet one another with a sign of Christ's peace,
and may say, "Peace be with you," or similar words.*

was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.*
On the third day he rose again;

he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.
