PMIG 2006

Person Memory Interest Group Annual Meeting

Camp Tockwogh Conference Center Worton, Maryland

October 9 - 12, 2006

David L. Hamilton & Eliot R. Smith, Co-Organizers

Wednesday, October 11th, 2006

Session 1

Galen Bodenhausen, Northwestern University, Chair

- 8:30 Roland Deutsch, *University of Wuerzburg*Benefits of Subtyping
- 9:15 Dan Molden, Northwestern University

 The Unintentional, Automatic, and Simultaneous

 Activation of Multiple Social Inferences
- 10:00 Break
- 10:30 Dana Carney, Harvard University

 The Presence of Implicit Bias in Physicians and its

 Prediction of Medical Treatment Decisions for

 Black and White Patients
- 11:15 Tracie Stewart, Georgia State University

 Awareness of White Privilege and Efficacy to Enact

 Social Change: Interactive Effects on Racial

 Prejudice and Social Action
- 12:30 Lunch

Wednesday, October 11th, 2006

Session 2

Tanya Chartrand, Duke University, Chair

2:00 David Amodio, New York University

A Social Neuroscience Perspective on the Dual Process Framework

2:45 Yaacov Schul, Hebrew University

Do Dual System Models Constitute a Theoretical Advance?

3:30 Break

4:00 2006 Thomas M. Ostrom Award Address

Donal E. Carlston, Purdue University & Anthony Greenwald, University of Washington, Chairs

Russell H. Fazio, Ohio State University

Negativity Biases in Attitude Formation and Generalization: Indicators of Vulnerability to Emotional Disorders?

7:00 Dinner

Marsday, October 12th, 2006

Session 3

Jim Uleman, New York University, Chair

- 8:30 Jamie DeCoster, University of Alabama
 Adventures in Data Archiving
- 9:15 Tal Eyal, Tel Aviv University
 Affect as a Cue for Self-Control
- 10:00 Break
- 10:30 Emily Balcetis, University of Ohio

 Motivated Visual Perception: How We See What

 We Want to See
- 11:15 Kerry Kawakami, York University

 The Real Chameleon: Effects of Category Priming and Interdependence on Assimilation of the Self to the Social Environment
- 12:30 Lunch

