Lord, Sanctify Us Through Thy Truth...

The rest of the scripture from which that prayer is taken says, “Thy Word is truth” (John 17:17, KJV).

Hello, Friends ~

Blessings to you!

As I prayed and asked God what He wanted me to speak to you this month, He said, “Speak a love of the truth to her.”

Over the last couple of months, God has had me ministering about the importance of the Body of Christ coming to a place of humility that leads to repentance and obedience. Last month He had me to emphasize the importance of recognizing His authority. The sooner we recognize God as the Authority in our lives - and treat Him as such - the easier it will be for us to receive instruction from Him and obey Him. The more we obey Him, the better things will be not only for us but for our community, our nation, and our world.

So, what's stopping us from obeying Him? Or at least obeying Him on the level we should?

I submit to you that on some level, we don't trust Him.

“What??!” I hear some exclaim.

It's true. And I get it. God gets it. It's hard to obey someone you do not trust. Don't misunderstand. I'm not saying we don't trust Him at all. I'm saying we don't trust Him IN all. If we did, we would do things the way He tells us rather than the way we think they should be done. Doing things our own way instead of His way demonstrates that we don't trust Him in all. In all situations... in all circumstances... in all areas of our lives... in all....

But I hear God say:

That is why I have given you My Word. I and My Word are One.

My Word is Truth, and it is absolutely trustworthy: I AM absolutely trustworthy.

My Word is Truth that sanctifies: My Word sanctifies you.

It separates you from all that is not Truth to all that is Truth: I am Truth.

It separates you from all that is not of Me to all that is Me...

From all that will fail you and let you down to all that I AM, Who will never fail you or let you down.

Take a moment to meditate what God just said to you. Don't just rush through it and take for granted that you already know.

Slow down. In the privacy of your own heart, answer these questions:

1. How much value do I place on what God just said to me?
2. Do I receive what He just said as Truth? Truly?
3. If I am being honest, what areas am I not trusting God in?
4. How is my lack of trust in these areas affecting my willingness to humble myself and obey?
5. Am I willing to let God's Word...God's Truth... God Himself be the Authority in my life, especially in areas where I have not been trusting?
6. What is hindering me from trusting?

As you answer these questions, I would like to encourage you to soak in the following scriptures. Read them, speak them, and think upon them constantly. Make His Word personal to you – speak the scriptures as if you are speaking them over yourself. (Ex: Sanctify me through Thy truth....) Let them saturate you until you are overflowing with a love of the Truth that endears you to the Word of God and the Presence of God like never before. As your love of the Truth increases, so will your trust in the One Who is true increase, in Jesus' Name.

John 17:17, KJV

Hallelujah!

May you go rejoicing in the truth of His Word, and in the freedom it brings to trust Him freely,
in Jesus' Name:

Psalm 19:7-14, TPT

⁷God's Word is perfect in every way;
how it revives our souls!
His laws lead us to truth,
and His ways change the simple into wise.

⁸His teachings make us joyful and radiate His light;
His precepts are so pure!
His commands, how they challenge us to keep close to His heart!
The revelation-light of His Word makes my spirit shine radiant.

⁹Every one of the Lord's commands is right;
following them brings cheer.
Nothing He says ever needs to be changed.

¹⁰The rarest treasures of life are found in His truth.
That's why I prize God's Word like others prize the finest gold.
Nothing brings the soul such sweetness
as seeking His living words.

¹¹For they warn us, His servants,
and keep us from following the wicked way,
giving a lifetime guarantee:
great success to every obedient soul!

¹² *Without this revelation-light,
how would I ever detect the waywardness of my heart?
Lord, forgive my hidden flaws whenever You find them.*

¹³ *Keep cleansing me, God,
and keep me from my secret, selfish sins;
may they never rule over me!
For only then will I be free from fault and remain innocent of rebellion.*

¹⁴ *So may the words of my mouth, my meditation-thoughts, and every movement of my heart be always pure and pleasing,
acceptable before your eyes,
my only Redeemer, my Protector-God.*

Glory to God!

May we as the Body of Christ always live:

- LOVING the Truth, Who is the One True God, and Jesus Christ Whom He has sent,
- RECOGNIZING God for the Authority that He is,
- BOWING our knee to the Name of Jesus and confessing Him as Lord (Master and Ruler) of our lives (See Phil. 2:10-11, Luke 6:46), and
- SUBMITTING to the Lordship of Jesus in spirit and in truth, doing what He tells us to do.

In Jesus' Name.

If you receive it, say, "Amen!"

If you have been blessed by what you have just read, OR, if you have been challenged by what you just read - I would like to encourage you to give, or to "sow on it." Sowing in this context is a spiritual principle where one plants their finances in the Kingdom of God to receive a harvest of what they are believing for. Many would equate this kind of giving to giving an offering, but it is so much more.

When sowing a financial seed into a ministry or church, etc., you are not just giving an offering or making a charitable donation. Sowing a financial seed is what one does when one personally receives the Word that was delivered and earnestly expects to see that Word come to pass in his or her life. It is your faith expression that says you believe the Word you have heard. It is also the impetus that activates the operation of that Word in your life. It is NOT a form of buying a blessing. NEITHER is it a selfish motive of giving to get. Rather, it is a spiritual law – the law of sowing and reaping.

As you prepare to sow your next seed (sowing outlets are listed at the end of this letter), sow it in faith as demonstration that you believe you receive a harvest of this Word in your life. Be blessed knowing that I am praying for you and speaking PERFECT VISION to you, in Jesus' Name.

Lovin' you with the Love of the Lord,

Katherine
