"If you call that prayer, which a carnal person performs, nothing is more poor and dastard-like. . . whereby not feeling his sins, and not knowing his danger, he rushes upon duty with a blind confidence, which soon quails when conscience awakes, and gives him the alarm, that his sins are upon him as the Philistines on Samson: alas, then in a fright the spoor-spirited wretch throws down his weapon, flies the presence of God with Adam, and dares not look him in the face."

VERSE OF THE MONTH

"For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms."
