

I, Ayesha Ahmed, am humbled and excited to be nominated to continue serving PAFA as its Treasurer. I look forward to your continued support and guidance in serving you, and improving on areas that I am short on.

I have been with the PAFA for over 4 years, serving as Treasurer for the last 2 years. Professionally, I am a research chemist at Dow AgroSciences and have an MBA and Master in Chemistry. My family (Ramia, Ibbrah and Hamid) and I reside in McCordsville, IN.

If I re-elected as a Treasurer, I will continue to be answerable and accountable to the general body. I take this opportunity to highlight some accomplishments that we have achieved in 2011, what I would like to focus in the coming years and my commitment to you all:

A. Highlights from 2011,

- a. Japanese Fund: Helped define and raise the fund for Japanese earthquake victims – Raised $1100
- b. Gleaner Food Drive: As a PAFA executive committee member helped volunteers to sort the collectable pantry's item for Indiana needy families
- c. Kit for Joplin Victims: Raised $800 for Joplin victims survival kits
- d. PAK AM Day: Planned and executed successfully PAK AM Day. One of the PAFA's successful event ever which reflects the PAFA 2011 executive committee's and volunteers vision, believes, dedication and team work
- e. Annual Picnic: Planned and organized annual picnic for Indiana community
- f. Writer Forum: Planned and arranged writer forum
- g. PAFA Finances:
 - Establish and led, along with executive committee, PAFA fund-raising activities for the year-2011
 - Increased PAFA financial reserve

B. Proposed focus for year 2012

- a. Financial Security: Continue to drive PAFA finances with utmost integrity, judgment and transparency
- b. Prepare PAFA for the Future: As our community, and its needs, grows, I would like to help shape the PAFA

B. My Commitment to you

- a. Integrity: I pray to have courage to do what is right and have opinions that are not influenced by others, and which are best for the community. I will strive to have the maturity to listen to different points of view and course correct myself as needed
- b. Accountability: I will remain mindful of the fact that, every dollar collected, I am answerable and accountable to the general body.

As PAFA Treasurer and an active member, I have shown my dedication, capabilities, and integrity and will continue to do so. I strive to have the right intentions, time and resources to serve the community, that I am fond and proud of. I hope you continue to find me worthy to serve as Treasurer.
