

Reverend JaShawn D. Hill

JaShawn Hill is a native of Chicago, Illinois. She is a wife and mother to 3 beautiful sons. She currently operates as a Youth Program Manager for Chicago Survivors, a non-profit organization that directly responds, serves and supports families impacted by homicide in the city of Chicago. In 2014 she gratefully accomplished her Master's Degree from Loyola University Chicago, as Magnum Cum Laude. In addition, she serves as a volunteer and advocate for Sister House Recovery Home on the west side of Chicago assisting in the recovery and deliverance of women overcoming substance abuse and addiction issues. As a call and a passion she also serves as a Program Manager and mentor to facilitate proactive and interventive services to young ladies between the ages of 13-18 faced with juvenile detention in a program called Daughters of Virtue (DOV). The purpose is to build the young ladies up in what's been torn down through peer pressure, social media and suppressed mental anguish of society. In January of 2018, JaShawn and her husband Lavell Hill founded and launched Frontline Favor Ministries, which has taken her leadership role to new levels, as she is earnest in the assignment to prepare and equip God's Disciples for His Works on the Frontline! If you would ask, she would declare that her overall passion is to win souls for the Kingdom!

In 2006 JaShawn was called out of the world of darkness into the Kingdom of Light, to find her purpose and God's plan for her to preach the gospel around the world. She is a motivational speaker and an ordained minister who has carried this Great Gospel throughout the Chicago land area and surrounding states. Surely she has an identified call to serve the Lord and His people.

JaShawn currently serves as Executive Pastor for The City of Praise Church of Chicago, under the leadership of Senior Pastor, Joseph L. Roberts.
