True Vine, we try to live alone, as if in our own disconnected, self-contained world. We want to be our own life-source. Thank You for being our Risen Lord and connecting us with the source of divine life that is our home and true energy. Thank You, Jesus, for being our vine, even when we rebel against the connection and dependence. As You rise in us, teach us again that God's heart is bigger and more expansive than ours. Continue to rise, Jesus, from the empty tombs we create in our human experience. InSpirit us as You did your early followers who learned to trust Saul even though they were suspicious and afraid. They embrace him with confidence because of Your love and inspiration. Help us not to live in empty tombs of suspicion, fear and mistrust. Embrace and inSpirit us with trust and genuine love which works for peace among all people. You planted Your Word deep within us - fertilize us to blossom because of Your presence. You truly are deep within us - help me believe that with confidence today.

Priest: It was not you who chose Me, but I Who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain.

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL: John 15:1-8

Priest: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. John

All: Glory be to You, Lord!

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples.”

Priest: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

Reflection Questions:

1. How could you use this Gospel to explain Paul's actions in the First Reading? You (the branches) remain in Jesus (the vine), whose life blood runs through you. How does his blood relate to your asking God for whatever you want and it being done for you?
2. “And every one that [bears fruit] he prunes so that it bears more fruit.” Have you ever felt like you were being “pruned?” At times do you have “dead wood” that needs to be pruned?
