MFF
PROJECT

Empowering Victim to Survivor

LITERARY WORKS

CREATIVE DIRECTOR

Branch created the Survivor Testimony & Monologues (STAM), a travelling theatrical production that shares monologues about different scenarios with different people exposed to domestic violence. It's been lauded as an exceptional storytelling vehicle that encompasses and answers so many questions and breaks stigmas around DV and abuse. Born and raised in Chicago, Chantelle studied at Northern Illinois University and is a certified Domestic Violence Specialist, volunteer, and Founder & Creative Director of My Fearless Future Project.

Speaking Topics

MFF
PROJECT

Abuse Has No Color- Addresses the realities of domestic violence in that it doesn't discriminate despite status—social, economic, cultural, or any other factor.

The Worst/Best Day of My Life- Chantelle speaks to her own journey from abuse to healing and what she's learned from interacting with other victims and survivors.

Year of YOU- Motivational speech or discussion around self-awareness, self-care and the journey to healing
