The Marie Management Approach: L4NR

This is how we solve company problems.

L: Love

Here we establish what it is that you love and why. We determine how to turn your mental, emotional, physical, spiritual and intellectual loves into a business that you love. Complete or review all initial business documents.

N: No Gaps

We make sure there are no system, strategy or process gaps within the structure, development, operations and executions of your business. We ensure accountability, checks and balances, legal and accounting are in place.

4: Four Business

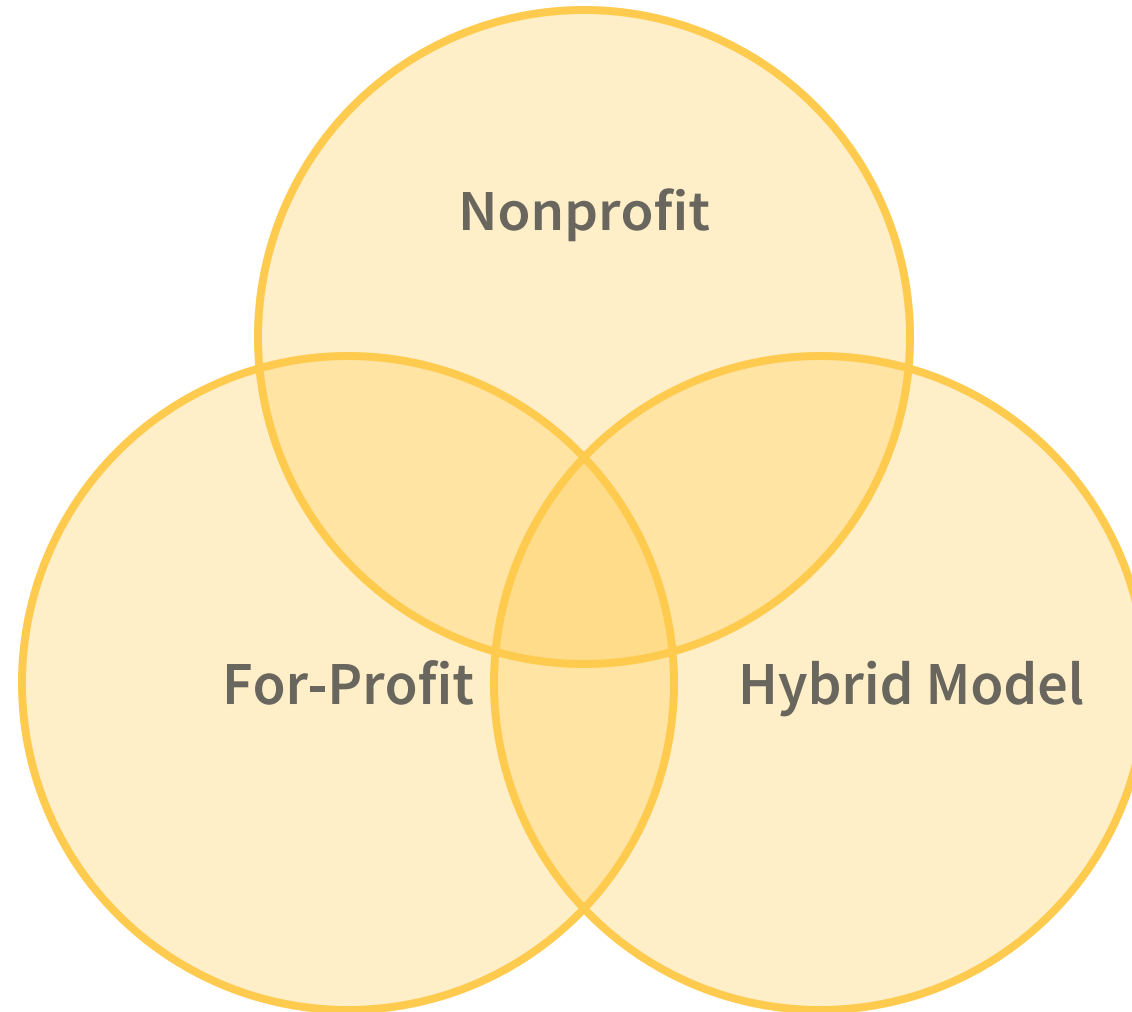

We access and evaluate your current or existing business for successful structure, development, operations and execution practices. We develop individualized solutions in each problem area.

R: Reason

We determine your WHY and the company's WHY on our way to establish the reasons the business has to succeed.

Consulting Application Process

We apply all components of the L4NR process to every business you own or founded.
