Admission

All applicants for admission to CORE PREP must obtain an application for admission. Initial acceptance of new students is probationary for the first semester. As a ministry of Fremont Baptist Temple, the school reserves the right to establish and maintain its own standards for student conduct and dress. Students are expected to make acceptable progress both spiritually and academically, to abide by the school rules and guidelines, and to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the policies and practices as established by the administration. Students who consistently violate the letter and spirit of the rules and guidelines may be asked to withdraw from school. CORE PREP makes no distinction in the admission of students based upon race, gender, nationality, or ethnic culture. As a private Christian institution, admission to CORE PREP is a privilege rather than a right. This privilege may be forfeited, and enrollment terminated should a student, new or returning, fail to meet his or her responsibilities as a student at CORE PREP.

By signing these documents, I am stating that I have read and do understand the rules and guidelines set forth in this student handbook. I am willing to follow these guidelines in letter and in spirit.

This document must be signed by students and Parent/Guardian.
