The 2022 Guide

Editor's Note

The 2022 festival season feels like a joyous welcome home party after so long. Masks on or off, audiences and artists are lining up for live and in-person musical and terpsichorean performances in picturesque settings around the world, in vineyards, mountains, valleys, lakeshores, and amphitheatres historic and modern.

What is especially striking about the 115 festivals in this year's Guide (our largest to date) is how many of them are celebrating their anniversaries. Promising "an anniversary edition not to be missed," France's Besançon Music Festival will honor its 75th season with 30 concerts Besançon and environs. Also coming up on 75 years is the ever-youthful Ojai Music Festival in Northern California, with this year's music director, the American Modern Opera Company (AMOC), promising a long weekend of avant-garde surprises, as is the Ojai tradition.

Heading into its centenary is the Handel Festival in Halle, Germany, with an adaptation of its 1922 programming, starting with the full staging of Orlando at the Halle Opera House. Another early music specialist, the Shenandoah Valley Bach Festival in Harrison Valley, VA, plans a 40th-anniversary performance of the complete B-minor Mass and, in a nod to one very un-Bach composer, Florence Price's Mississippi River Suite. In other round-number celebrations, the Santa Fe (NM) Desert Chorale has dubbed its season "Caminante: Journey through 40 Years," while who better than the chamber virtuosi at Music@Menlo in Atherton, CA, to examine "Haydn Connections" through the years.

As usual, we've packed the Guide with the essentials, including dates, geographic and venue information, ticket prices and purchase links, pandemic safety links as needed, artistic directors, performers, web addresses, and social media links galore. Personally, I've already got one foot out the door, heading to the mountains, valleys, and any place in between for some serious music-making and listening. Hope you are too.

Regards,

Susan Elliott

ARTOSPHERE: ARKANSAS' ARTS AND NATURE FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The esteemed Artosphere Festival Orchestra (AFO) returns to Northwest Arkansas in May to delight audiences as the musical centerpiece of the annual Artosphere: Arkansas' Arts + Nature Festival. Presented by Walton Arts Center and featuring music, film, and more, Artosphere celebrates ways the arts can connect us to the natural world. The AFO features premier musicians from distinguished symphonies and music programs around the world, performing symphonic, chamber, and community engagement "pop-up" style performances across the region under the baton of internationally acclaimed Maestro Corrado Rovaris.

This year's Chamber Music Series features intimate performances in unique venues with groups including Dover Quartet, Seraph Brass, arx duo percussion ensemble, and Natalie Christa, among others.

BAY CHAMBER CONCERTS SCREEN DOOR FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Bay Chamber's Screen Door Festival glimmers with variety. This Festival shines a light on living composers, unconventional combinations of string instruments with guitars and electronics, or mind-expanding combinations of projected visual art with physical performers and classical musicians or dazzling baroque ensembles. And Camden, Maine, is a destination with a craggy and rugged shoreline along a bay dotted with hundreds of uninhabited islands and crowned by pined mountains. The musical venues are approachable, sometimes historic, and always New-England-beautiful. This year's festival will be held entirely outdoors at the Camden Amphitheater next door to the public library. Covid precautions apply.

THE GILMORE PIANO FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The Gilmore Piano Festival—the largest gathering of keyboard artists in North America—returns to live performance this year with appearances by nearly 50 pianists in more than 100 concerts and events. Highlights of the 15th biennial Gilmore Festival include the return of 2018 Gilmore Artist Igor Levit; an opening night of jazz with 14-time Grammy Award-winner Herbie Hancock; a duo program by sibling musicians Isata and Sheku Kanneh-Mason; world premieres of Gilmore commissions from Matthew Aucoin, Tyshawn Sorey, and Andrius Žlabys; and educational offerings as part of a new career-advancement initiative: the Gilmore Festival Fellows residency program. The festival's diverse performance schedule is complemented by an extensive series of master classes, pre-concert talks, film screenings, and lectures, as well as an interactive public art installation.

29TH ISTANBUL JAZZ FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Istanbul Jazz Festival occurs every year in July, organized since 1994 by the Istanbul Foundation for Culture and Arts (İKSÜ). İKSÜ chose to build this festival around jazz music because it believes jazz is one of the most innovative musical genres—open to new ideas, inclusive, and accessible. Accordingly, İKSÜ organizes a broad-spectrum event that not only brings together music lovers and musicians, but also supports the work of jazz musicians in Turkey and encourages new productions.

LA JOLLA MUSIC SOCIETY SUMMERFEST

La Jolla Music Society's SummerFest has been expanded to four glorious weeks!

Music Director Inon Barnatan has created an ambitious program, evocatively titled "Under the Influence," exploring the muses that seduced and inspired some of the greatest composers in musical history.

During the Festival, we'll hear the magnetic effect of Wagner and J.S. Bach on their peers, travel to the salons of Paris, and experience the sins and merry pranks of Kurt Weill and Strauss. We'll spend a genre-defying and unique week with opera stars, dancers, and jazz luminaries, and go further under the influence in a new intermission-free Wednesday series that welcomes audiences into the worlds of Shakespeare, Vivaldi, and more, followed by a social and culinary experience in the Wu Tsai courtyard.

WHAT DISTINGUISHES THIS FESTIVAL?

Amidst San Diego's ocean backdrop, La Jolla Music Society's SummerFest is a nationally recognized chamber music festival established by the local community in 1986. Each August, SummerFest assembles an outstanding roster of renowned musicians to perform a rich variety of presentations, and carries forward a legacy of commissioning new works.

SummerFest Fellowship Artist Program

La Jolla Music Society's SummerFest Fellowship Artist Program offers a one-of-a-kind experience to emerging artists every August. This highly competitive program in sunny San Diego, California focuses on refining the interpretation, communication, and performance skills required at the highest levels of chamber music.

For more than 30 years, Fellowship Artist alumni, including the Dover Quartet, the Rolston String Quartet, and the Callisto Quartet, have gone on to win major awards and competitions from the Avery Fisher Career Grant and the Fischhoff Competition, to the Banff International String Quartet Competition. The Fellowship Artist Program provides a seamless blend between training and professional performance opportunities in which participants are able to work with and perform alongside some of the most inspiring artists in the world.

String quartets, violinists, cellists, pianists, and piano trios are encouraged to apply. Applications for SummerFest 2023 will be open September 15–December 15, 2022.

MUSIC IN THE VINEYARDS

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Celebrate the 28th season of Music in the Vineyards, the nationally acclaimed chamber music festival held each summer in the Napa Valley. Each concert, set amidst a winery, barrel room, or wine cave venue, is hosted by Artistic Director Michael Adams, whose irreverent introductions and program notes are a beloved feature. The 2022 season will welcome more than 30 artists from around the world and three renowned string quartets: The Pacifica, the Escher, and, making their debut, the Maxwell Quartet from Scotland, known equally for its virtuosity in the classics and folk music from the British Isles. Also new this season is an evening of classic silent films, accompanied by newly composed music that re-creates the experience of moviegoers in the early days of cinema.

OJAI MUSIC FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

The 75th-anniversary season features as its music director the AMOC (American Modern Opera Company), a multi-disciplinary collective of today's most inventive and adventurous musicians, singers, composers, choreographers, and dancers. The 2022 edition—June 9 to 12—reflects the openness and experimentation that are signature traits of Ojai, from Messiaen's song cycle Harawi and a Bach-inspired program to Anthony Cheung's new commission featuring works by Asian-American poets to the world premiere of Matthew Aucoin's Family Dinner, a cycle of new mini-concertos. The enchanting setting of the Ojai Valley creates a relaxed sense of community with no great divide between playing and listening. Instead, there is an informal bond that brings kindred spirits together for exploration and adventure.

OXFORD LIEDER FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

"Friendship in Song: An Intimate ArtSong" is a form of music-making that grew up around the piano, at social gatherings and salons, among friends. Composers were often friends with other composers, poets, and painters. Friendship is also at the heart of all Oxford Lieder does. We celebrate this more than ever this year, with a rich, fascinating and uplifting program that reveals special connections and a vibrant atmosphere of creativity in song.

ROUND TOP MUSIC FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

More than 90 young talented musicians will gather for six weeks of intensive training (orchestra, chamber music, and solo repertoire). Master classes (30) are open to the public, as well as the orchestra rehearsals, in an intimate beautiful chapel and in an acoustically peerless, world-class concert hall. The surrounding campus, more than 200 acres, has been generously planted with thousands of trees and bushes of various species offering shadowy picnic areas.

SOLSBERG FESTIVAL

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Sol Gabetta has again successfully brought top-class musicians to the Fricktal region to celebrate chamber music with her: Patricia Kopatchinskaja, Bertrand Chamayou, or the Hagen Quartett are regular partners of hers. However, the Solsberg Festival always offers the chance to meet new chamber music partners, such as the English pianist Benjamin Grosvenor or the Israeli violinist Ilya Gringolts. We can also look forward to the substantial participation of Dmitry Smirnov, who has just won a prize at the ARD Music Competition and was until recently a student at the Basel Music Academie. In addition, we are delighted about the appearance of the French star soprano Léa Desandre, who is singing a leading role at the Zurich Opera House at the same time and is coming to Olsberg on a performance-free evening.

TEATRO NUOVO

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Will Crutchfield's Teatro Nuovo presents semi-staged productions of beloved bel canto favorites and rarities in semi-staged concert form in New York City and New Jersey. This summer features performances of Bellini's La Sonnambula and Rossini's Maometto II, with casts that include returning favorites Teresa Castillo, Hannah Ludwig, Hans Tashjian, and Nicholas Simpson, and the debuts of Simone McIntosh and Enrique Guzman.

Crutchfield and Associate Artistic Director Jakob Lehmann share musical leadership. The company's fourth summer will again showcase the critically acclaimed Teatro Nuovo Orchestra, a hand-picked ensemble hailed as transformative (Wall Street Journal) in these American presentations of 19th-century operas on period instruments. Teatro Nuovo also offers daily vocal and instrumental

WOLF TRAP

FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Wolf Trap Foundation for the Performing Arts returns to the Filene Center for summer 2022, the organization’s 51st season at Wolf Trap National Park for the Performing Arts. Heralded as a one-of-a-kind cultural destination (Men’s Journal), Wolf Trap’s Filene Center has long been an artistic mainstay of the Washington, DC, region. The 75-plus performance season will see artists from all genres ranging from Sting, Trombone Shorty and Orleans Avenue, and A. R. Rahman to Wolf Trap Opera, the National Symphony Orchestra, and Silkroad Ensemble with Rhiannon Giddens. With patron, artist, and staff wellbeing a priority, Wolf Trap complies with local, state, and federal health and safety guidelines.
