ORDER

Plaintiffs filed their complaint on October 23, 2009, but have not filed proof that any of the remaining five unnamed defendants have been served within the 120-day period allowed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m). Plaintiffs were ordered to show cause in writing by June 1, 2010 why this case should not be dismissed for want of prosecution. Plaintiffs Kenneth Gomez and Lynette Gomez filed a response stating that they do not intend to serve the remaining five unnamed defendants. Plaintiff-intervenor Richard Tast has not filed a response. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the complaint be, and hereby is, DISMISSED. SIGNED this 7th day of June, 2010.
