May President's Letter

Thanks, one and all for your help in getting us on the front page of the Jacksonville Daily News! If you did not see it - we have a physical copy for anyone to view if they would like to.

We are excited to be meeting in person this month. Remember you will have to answer some questions and if you don't feel well - we will still have the zoom option available for those not able to attend the meeting - that means all you wonderful helpers that have moved or are traveling during the guild meeting - you can still be with us all.

I have been helping to finish up Quilts of Valor and Child Advocacy Quilts to get them to their respective new owners to give comfort to one and all. What have you been up to? Remember you can post your projects on our CPNQG Facebook page - send a copy to CPNQGcommunications@gmail.com and then they can be shared on the Zoom/Facebook and webpage!

I will be attending a Shop Owners Retreat in Florida the first week in May and then have family coming the second week of May - so I have been busy trying to get everything arranged. Hopefully getting some sewing done for myself and having some cool things to share!

Take some time for yourself and hope some sewing will make you feel better.

Piecefully yours,
Kirsta Meadows
President
