- The show is open to all art mediums – 2D or 3D. We understand it may be difficult for all 3D artwork to comply with the show's theme. Thus, all 3D submissions will be accepted. Under Medium for photography please specify if on canvas, metal or other.
- The Show Committee reserves the right to deny entry based on the quality of framing and/or appropriateness for family viewing. No lewd or offensive material will be allowed. Original art only – no giclee prints allowed. The show committee will install all exhibits as well as labels to maintain consistency of display.
- No artwork may be removed by the artist prior to the removal date below unless permission granted by the gallery Chair.
- The designated day for removal is Friday, October 7, 8am-Noon. The committee will take down all artwork and put it where artist can pick it up. It is important that you or your designated person pick up the work on this date. The Southern Utah Art Guild is not responsible for work not retrieved.
- The Artist Reception will be Friday, September 9, from 6 to 8 PM. Prizes will be awarded.
- Selling: Sales will be made by the Southern Utah Art Guild. The guild will receive 25%, Artist 75%. Artist should include the Guild's 25% in the selling price. Sales tax will be added to the price of the art. All artwork submitted must be for sale – No NFS items. When a piece is sold, the artist will be notified and then it can be replaced by the artist. The committee will install the new artwork.
- Liability: Neither the Southern Utah Art Guild nor the city of St. George assumes liability for works exhibited in this show. I have read and will comply with the Southern Utah Art Guild's and the City of St. George's terms and conditions. Images of my artwork may be used in future Southern Utah Art Guild advertisements.
