Re: The activities of Sgt. Latoya King, as it relates to the death of Katherine Sarah Morris

Dear Sir:

This letter is sent as a follow-up to the attached that was sent in August of 2012 following the death of my daughter Katherine Sarah Morris as a result of the activities of 2 soldiers over adultery and Basic Allowance for Housing fraud. While I will not repeat all of the details our investigation into the circumstances surrounding our Katherine's death continue. This letter is in reference to the soldier Latoya King who still continues to use the military as a skirt to hide behind in these horrible set of circumstances. She has repeatedly refused to cooperate, presented false information to her commanding officers as well as to a federal court. Most recently via a subpoena of phone records and FOI request it has come to our attention that this soldier violated a direct order for "No Contact" with the soldier Isaac Goodwin (now discharged). This soldier was given a written direct order for "No Contact" on August 8 2012 and phone records show that over a 30 day period starting August 10, 2012 there were at least 63 exchanges between the 2 of them. We are confident that additional subpoena's will identify additional violations of UCMJ regulations.

In addition, please consider this a Freedom of Information request as to how this matter was handled with the soldier Sgt. Latoya King to include any and all disciplinary action. May I also respectfully add that in 2012 this soldier refused to cooperate, was given access to a military lawyer and then refused to answer any questions about this matter. My concern is if she would violate a direct order, used several alias's in her communications with the deceased, then what else was she willing to do to be with this married soldier. Records from the deceased IPOD now show that on May 4, 2012 the deceased threatened to take recorded calls made to her by Latoya King, along with evidence of the adultery to the Inspector General's Office the following week. The next day the deceased turns up dead under what are now questionable circumstances.

Thank you in advance for your response.

Sincerely,

Marguerite R. Morris

MEMORANDUM FOR SGT [REDACTED] Headquarters, 55th Sustainment Brigade, Fort Belvoir, Virginia

SUBJECT: No Contact Order

1. You, SGT [REDACTED], are hereby ordered to have no contact of any kind (e.g. physical, verbal, written, electronic or otherwise) with the married soldier ("married soldier") that you have had previous contact with, who is currently deployed to Afghanistan, in a duty or non-duty status, until this order is specifically rescinded in writing.
2. Examples of no contact include not approaching the "married soldier" at any dining facility, Post Exchange, morale, welfare and recreation facilities or other social areas; not entering his living quarters or vehicle; no e-mails, text messaging, instant messaging or contact by any electronic or social media means, no other written correspondence relating to unofficial matters; nor any telephonic communications. If you inadvertently come in contact with the "married soldier", you will immediately leave his area of vision. You will not follow the "married soldier" or monitor his activities in any manner. You will not use other Soldiers or anyone else, to include Department of Army employees, as a means of contacting the "married soldier" for unofficial or official purposes.
3. This order does not apply to contact required to accomplish your official duties. However, any official contact with "the married soldier" will not be conducted behind closed doors in an office or other isolated areas from public viewing such as a stairwell, and must be conducted with at least one officer or noncommissioned officer present. If you have any question whether or not a particular contact is in violation of this order, contact the Brigade Deputy Commander, LTC [REDACTED].
4. This action is taken as an administrative measure, not as a form of non-judicial punishment. If evidence is presented that indicates you have not followed this written order, you will be subject to punishment under the UCMJ and/or adverse administrative action.

Request for Reconsideration

Re: The death of Katherine Sarah Morris as it relates to the activities of Sgt. Latoya King, (55th Sustainment Brigade) and Damaris Brown (Department of the Army Employee at 55th Sustainment Brigade)

Dear Sir:

Thank you for your timely response to our request for assistance from your office. As a follow-up to your correspondence there are several points we would like to make and/or respond to.

- 1) That Katherine Morris was the victim. In matters related to her death Sgt. Latoya King's refusal to cooperate and answer questions is her right, but that should not dissolve her or Damaris Brown from having accountability for their disturbing behavior, midafternoon from a military installation, directed at a young college student¹.
- 2) It is our allegation that there were omissions and/or errors in information submitted to your office in both the Summary of Commanders Inquiry Report from Colonel Theresa Baginski and the 15-6 Investigation Report² submitted from Ft Bragg signed by Colonel Mark Murray. (See Attachment P)
- 3) We now have in our possession several reports received per the Freedom of Information Act and still have to question the verbal accounts given by Damaris Brown and those said to be given by Sgt. Latoya King. They do not match verifiable electronic timelines. (See Attachments C-H)
- 4) It is our allegation that prior to May 2, 2012, Katherine Morris was already known to be a vulnerable adult and the sequence of events facilitated by members of the military and their associates contributed to her death.

The Summary of Commanders Inquiry

The Summary of Commanders Inquiry report was issued just 4 days after the death of Katherine Morris. There were many unknowns at that point and we allege that the behavior of Sgt. Latoya King is highly questionable and should not be dismissed. It is our belief that there was willful manipulation by Sgt. King of facts and the corroboration of those facts by her friend Damaris Brown is equally questionable.

² To be responded to in detail with cc from letter to General Jeffrey Colt

From Summary of the Commanders Inquiry may we point out the following:

- 1) The memo does not clearly mention the number of aliases used by Sgt. Latoya King in communicating with the deceased and the deceased's husband. Among them, Kristina, Kristina Robins, Damaris Carabello, bluerush007, Feb King, and possibly Shaniqua Jenkins. We understand that using aliases may not be illegal but the question is "If Sgt. King did not know Sgt. Goodwin was married then why the aliases in her direct communications with him?" Sir, I respectfully ask who was she hiding from before March?
- 2) When the deceased reached out on March 9, 2012 she was married, struggling with the facts of that marriage and now finding out that the soldier was involved with not only one but several women including Sgt. King. Should Katherine be penalized in an inquiry around the circumstances of her death because she reacted to this knowledge? (See Attachment Q).

Our Responses to the Summary of the Commanders Inquiry by Paragraph:

Paragraph 1 In reference to "no evidence that Sgt. King or Mrs. Brown caused or contributed in any way to the death of Katherine Morris" See Timeline of Events, May 2-5, 2012 (Attachment C-H), print screens from the deceased phone May 2-4, 2012 (Attachment E), deceased twitter page postings May 2-5, 2012 (Attachment I), print screens from Facebook postings May 2-5, 2012 (Attachment J), and Statement From Mental Health Professional (Attachment K)

Paragraph 2 For clarification purposes Sgt. Goodwin deployed to Afghanistan in March of 2012. When Goodwin's wife was hospitalized and then discharged on or about December 28th 2011 Sgt. Goodwin purportedly spent the night with Sgt. King at Ft. Belvoir. According to Sgt. King her sexual involvement with Sgt. Goodwin was during his entire 10 month marriage to his wife Katherine.

Paragraph 5 Sgt. King (purportedly), once she became aware of Sgt. Goodwin being married "also claimed to have reported the incident to the IG and that the issue had been referred to Sgt. Goodwin's Command" I will address this later.

Comment #1: Katherine's phone number was changed per her request on March 27, 2012.

Comment #2: If something is wrong to do, does it make it right because you are invited to do it? I ask you Sir, "What right did that give Sgt. Latoya King to call Katherine Sarah Morris about having an affair with Katherine's husband, Sgt. Isaac Goodwin?"

Paragraph 6 Katherine had captured electronic communication between Sgt. Goodwin and Sgt. King. The email Sgt. King sends Sgt. Goodwin states he married Katherine for "financial gain". (See Attachment A)

Paragraph 7 THIS PARAGRAPH IS MOST ERRONEOUS AND MISLEADING. It states that "On or about 2-3 May 2012, "SGT King emailed Ms. Morris asking to speak with her regarding SPC Goodwin. Ms. Morris responded and requested a phone number to call her." "Mrs. Brown was off Duty"

- a. Katherine (Ms. Morris) captured and saved this electronic communications and they do not show Katherine asking for a number etc.

- b. The correct sequence of events is that Sgt. King (alias Kristina) initiated contact on May 2, 2012 at 2:07 p.m. Sgt. King sent 6 email messages (which appear to be to provoke Katherine into calling – especially when she believes Katherine is not going to return her call) and Sgt. King then makes 3 phone calls to Katherine's phone. This went on from 2:07 pm in the afternoon until Katherine finally returned her call at 5:27 pm. (See Attachment C-H)
- c. Sgt. King even calls Katherine an "Email Gangster" to provoke her. "Email Gangster" is a slang term and is a challenge to a physical/in person confrontation to a person that portrays selves as being tough in emails but they are not so tough in person. (See Attachment D & L)
- d. Sgt, King tells Katherine in the electronic communication that "she had been intimate with her husband for over 3 ½ years and she was definitely not his ex." (See attachment G).
- e. We have Katherine own words saying "the way she came at me in those emails" She is referring to the emails sent by King.
- f. The electronic communications show that Katherine was the one that could not return the call until 5:30 pm. because Sgt. King and Damaris Brown's intent was to reach Katherine at 2:07 pm in the afternoon from the workplace. (See Attachment F)

Interestingly enough is what is not mentioned by either Mrs. Brown or Sgt. King. Katherine's sister found these communications and on or about May 7th and initiated a call to the number listed in the email asking for Kristina. The phone was apparently answered by Brown who had Kristina return the call. At that point no one knew about any of the above. However, even after knowing of Katherine's death Kristina did not come forth and acknowledge that she was in fact Sgt. Latoya King. She continued perpetrating the fraud. She allegedly unknowingly told Katherine's sister details about Goodwin's whereabouts in his route back from Afghanistan, discussed his not attending the funeral, discussed him paying for the funeral arrangements etc. Goodwin had not contacted the Morris family.

Comments: From this paragraph alone we ask the following:

- 1) If Sgt. King was so concerned about the soldier being married in March and that she reportedly went to the IG office – then why in May does she boldly contact his wife to inform her that Sgt. Goodwin was going to divorce her (his wife) and marry her? (See Sworn Statement from Roommate Attachment M)
- 2) What was Damaris Brown connection with the deceased? Katherine clearly did not know her and asked who she was when she sent Katherine a friend request on Facebook on or about March 27, 2012 (see Attachment R)
- 3) Why did King (who was already using the alias Kristina) use someone else's cell phone number and email address for the May 2, 2012 contact with the deceased?
- 4) Who is Sgt. Latoya King to ask a fragile new wife of another soldier "did her husband marry her for benefits?" What gave King that right and what business was it of hers?

 COPY

- 5) What kind of reaction are we looking for? The call from Sgt King and Mrs. Brown deeply disturbed Katherine as verified by her twitter postings during the call and over the next 72 hours – up until her death. (See Attachment I & J)
- 6) How cordial a conversation can you have telling someone that you have been her husband's longtime mistress? Especially to a fragile young college student who's spinning from being duped into what appears to be a loveless marriage? For most people this would have inflicted a great deal of emotional pain.
- 7) In our opinion these circumstances strongly suggest that Sgt. Latoya King knew about Katherine's vulnerability.

In the Summary of the Commanders Inquiry

1. If there were an invitation it was withdrawn when Katherine deliberately changed her phone number on March 27, 2012.
2. This was the wife of a man that Sgt. King was having an affair with, planned to marry, and upon Katherine's death would collect on a $100,000 insurance policy.
3. The electronic communications show Sgt. King already knew the answers to the questions she was asking. Attachment A.
4. This call from Sgt. King came almost 2 months after the alleged invitation and Sgt. King was adamant about getting a return call from the deceased. This is supported by date and time stamped communications showing her having sent 6 emails and making 3 phone calls to the deceased. See Attachment (C-I)
5. This contact by Sgt. King started at 2:07pm in the afternoon and stretched over a 3 1/2 hour time span from a military installation. Not the 5:30 pm after hours call reported by Damaris Brown (See Attachment N).

Our review of statements leave Damaris Brown corroborating Latoya Kings story which conflict with the date stamped facts. If their statements are misleading on those details how accurate and reliable are the remaining comments?

The following questions still remain unanswered.

Why did Sgt. King initiate contact with the deceased on May 2, 2012 and if she was so concerned about her military career then why does she now contact the wife, confess adultery to her and put it in writing?

The findings of the Commanders Inquiry state that there was no adultery because Goodwin had just gone out of the country. If this is the military stance then what remains, as I stated to Colonel Baginski, is that this then equates to email harassment and/or cyber bullying and in our my opinion should still be subject to some sort of disciplinary action. Is our daughter's life worth less than a soldier's¹³?

In closing, General Lennon, the report presented to you by Colonel Baginski's, that she relied on in making her recommendations for no disciplinary action, was based on information presented to her that was in part erroneous. We believe that this is much like parts of 15-6 Investigative Report presented to you by the 82nd Airborne 501 PIR Delta contained errors even in some of the sworn statements. This information being submitted is from the parents and family of Katherine Morris. This information is factual and not as some have implied, a grieving mother responding out of emotion. It is also our understanding that if a soldier's behavior adversely affects the military image then they could be given an Article 134ⁱⁱ. It is our prayer that facts as outlined in this letter at least rise to that level.

Thank you in advance for your response.

Sincerely,
