St Charles Prineville nurse, Samantha Martin, Medical Services, has received the DAISY Award for outstanding, compassionate care, along with 3 other Central Oregon nurses at Bend, Redmond & Madras. Nurses were nominated by patients, families and colleagues, the award recipients were chosen by a committee at St. Charles.

The nurses were recognized with a ceremony on their respective units and presented with a certificate, a pin and a "healer's touch" sculpture by their hospital's chief nursing officer. The DAISY honorees will also receive ongoing benefits, such as special rates for tuition and ANCC certification.

The DAISY Foundation is a not-for-profit organization that was established in memory of J. Patrick Barnes by members of his family. Patrick died at the age of 33 in late 1999 from complications from an auto-immune disease. DAISY is an acronym for Diseases Attacking the Immune System. The care Patrick and his family received from nurses while he was ill inspired this unique means of thanking nurses for making a profound difference in the lives of their patients and patient families.

Congrats and thank you to Samantha.

A person's value is that which he sets upon himself!

Angels.....as explained by children!

I only know the names of two angels, Hark & Harold. Gregory, age 5

Angels work for God and watch over kids when God has to do something else. Mitchell, age 7

What I don't get about angels is why, when someone is in love, they shoot arrows at them. Sarah, age 7

Angels don't eat, but they drink milk from Holy cows!!!! Jack, age 6

Angels talk all the way while they're flying you up to heaven. The main subject is where you went wrong before you got dead. Sherry, age 9

Angels live in cloud houses made by God and his son, who's a very good carpenter. Jared, age 8

Angels have a lot to do and they keep very busy. If you lose a tooth, an angel comes in through your window and leaves money under your pillow. Then when it gets cold, angels go south for the winter. Bryce, age 6

Everybody's got it all wrong. Angels don't wear halos anymore. I forget why, but scientists are working on it. Olive, age 9

My guardian angel helps me with math, but he's not much good for science. Henry, age 8

It's not easy to become an angel! First, you die. Then you go to Heaven, and then there's still the flight training to go through. And then you got to agree to wear those angel clothes. Matthew, age 9

My angel is my grandma who died last year. She got a big head start on helping me while she was still down here on earth. Ashley, age 9

Some of the angels are in charge of helping heal sick animals and pets. And if they don't make the animals get better, they help the child get over it. Vicki, age 8

All angels are girls because they gotta wear dresses and boys didn't go for it. Bruce, age 9

When an angel gets mad, he takes a deep breath and counts to ten. And when he lets out his breath again, somewhere there's a tornado. Reagan, age 10

Tragedy creates need for local family. Robert Lightner tragically lost his wife and home in a house fire. The home was not insured. Monetary donations to help him pick up the pieces - can be dropped off at Your Round-Up, 1590 SE Mountain View Dr (off Combs Flat Rd). Indicate on envelope that it's for Mr Lightner. A huge shout-out to those who have helped thus far. Mr Lightner is humbled and very appreciative of the love and support he's been shown. He still has quite a bit of uncertainty ahead and does still need your help. (ufn)

An insurance agent was writing a policy for a cowboy.

"Did you ever have any accidents?" asked the agent.

"No," replied the cowboy, and then added,
"but a bronco kicked in five of my ribs last year and a rattlesnake bit me."

"Well!" said the insurance man. "Don't you call those accidents?"

"Of course not!" replied the cowboy. "They did it on purpose!"

Just for Fun

Electrical Pun....

I know an electrician who became a famous baseball player!

That's a switch.

Yeah, he really could sock-it to 'em!

Did he ever play against that fabulous pitcher, O'Watts?

He didn't like him.

He wanted to kill O'Watts.

Why?

He was secretly in love with his wife, Meg O'Watts.

Got a real charge out of her, eh?

Something fierce. He used to send her a wire every day!

What happened?

Ruined his career. It got to the point where he wasn't worth a plug nickel.

SHOCKING!
