November 1st Feast of All Saints.

November 2nd All souls' Day

"If a Christian wants to reach heaven, he or she should ask themselves if they are living for the pleasures of the world, or if they are striving after holiness with all their strength."

"Let us ask ourselves what side we are on: that of heaven or that of the earth? Do we live for the Lord or for ourselves, for eternal happiness or for some fulfillment now? Do we really want holiness? Or do we content ourselves with being Christians without disgrace and without praise, who believe in God and esteem others but without going too far?"

Pope Francis

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

The Readings of this Sunday continue on the topic of prayer. Because prayer is like a machine that has several parts that need to work together in order to achieve its end. The first reading reminds us that not only because we say things to God our prayer is reaching Heaven. Only the prayer of the humble pierces the Heaven and arrive to God. That should question our prayer life; are our prayers reaching Heaven or not?

To help us understand, the Gospel explains to us what humility means. To explain uses the figure of a Pharisee, a man of God who is very religious and follows the Law of God and a Publican, a man who betrayed Israel in order to become the tax collector for the Romans and uses his position to steal money from the people. Both go to pray but only one of them is heard. The Publican is heard and the Pharisee is not... why? Because the Pharisee felt that he was better than the Publican. What is humility? Never to think that we are better than anyone. To have discovered that we are all in need of the salvation that Christ brings. So let us remember this as we pray.

Last week, there was a mistake about the transferring of the daily mass to the Convent chapel. It should have said, "after discussing it with the Pastoral Council and by unanimous approval I have decided to do this move." Also next week is our Casino Night, I invite all of you to participate and be a part of a wonderful evening for all of us. Finally, this weekend our Altar Servers will be commissioned and I am very proud to have the excellent servers we have.

Saint Francis de Sales Pray for Us!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

Las lecturas de este domingo continúan sobre el tema de la oración. Porque la oración es como una máquina que tiene varias partes que necesitan trabajar juntas para lograr su fin. La primera lectura nos recuerda que no solo porque decimos cosas a Dios, nuestra oración está llegando al Cielo. Solo la oración de los humildes atraviesa el cielo y llega a Dios. Eso debería cuestionar nuestra vida de oración; ¿Nuestras oraciones llegan al cielo o no?

Para ayudarnos a comprender, el Evangelio nos explica qué significa la humildad. Para explicar utiliza la figura de un fariseo, un hombre de Dios que es muy religioso y sigue la Ley de Dios y un publicano, un hombre que traicionó a Israel para convertirse en el recaudador de impuestos para los romanos y usa su posición para robar dinero de la gente. Ambos van a rezar pero solo uno de ellos es escuchado. Se escucha al publicano y el fariseo no ... ¿por qué? Porque el fariseo sentía que era mejor que el publicano. ¿Qué es la humildad? Nunca pensar que somos mejores que nadie. Haber descubierto que todos necesitamos la salvación que Cristo trae. Así que recordemos esto mientras oramos.

La semana pasada, hubo un error acerca de la transferencia de la misa diaria a la capilla del convento. Debería haber dicho, "después de discutirlo con el Consejo Pastoral y por aprobación unánime, he decidido hacer este movimiento". También la próxima semana es nuestra Noche de Casino, los invito a todos a participar y ser parte de una maravillosa noche para todos nosotros. Finalmente, este fin de semana nuestros monaguillos serán comisionados y estoy muy orgulloso de tener los excelentes servidores que tenemos.

San Francisco de Sales ¡Ruega por nosotros!

Caros irmãos e irmãs

As leituras deste domingo continuam sobre o tema da oração. Porque a oração é como uma máquina que tem várias partes que precisam trabalhar juntas para alcançar seu fim. A primeira leitura nos lembra que não apenas porque dizemos a Deus que nossa oração está chegando ao céu. Somente a oração dos humildes penetra no céu e chega a Deus. Isso deve questionar nossa vida de oração; nossas orações estão chegando ao céu ou não?

Para nos ajudar a entender, o Evangelho nos explica o que significa humildade. Explicar usa a figura de um fariseu, um homem de Deus que é muito religioso e segue a Lei de Deus e um publicano, um homem que traiu Israel para se tornar cobrador de impostos dos romanos e usa sua posição para roubar dinheiro das pessoas. Ambos vão orar, mas apenas um deles é ouvido. O publicano é ouvido e o fariseu não é ... por quê? Porque o fariseu achava que era melhor que o publicano. O que é humildade? Nunca pensar que somos melhores que ninguém. Descobrir que todos precisamos da salvação que Cristo traz. Então, lembremo-nos disso enquanto oramos.

Na semana passada, houve um erro na transferência da missa diária para a capela do convento. Deveria ter dito: "depois de discutir isso com o Conselho Pastoral e com a aprovação unânime, decidi fazer essa mudança." Também na próxima semana é a noite do cassino, convido todos a participar e fazer parte de uma noite maravilhosa para todos nós. Finalmente, neste fim de semana, nossos coroinhas serão comissionados e estou muito orgulhoso de ter os excelentes servidores que temos.

São Francisco de Sales ora por nós!P

Fr. Francisco
