Bless-itation

Every new journey we choose to embark on is filled with excitement and anticipation, and there may also be feelings of hesitation. This paradoxical state of blessing and hesitation that could be called a "bless-itation". As we travel along, we discover the blessings and our hesitations on our new path. Additionally, we have the opportunity to recognize the power of blessing in whatever is before us and/or triggering us, greeting it with curiosity. What gifts are discovered during moments of bless-itation?
