The Confession of Faith: Westminster Larger Catechism No. 72 Q. What is Justifying Faith?

A. Justifying faith is a saving grace, wrought in the heart of a sinner by the Spirit and Word of God, whereby he, being convinced of his sin and misery, and of the disability in himself and all other creatures to recover him out of his lost condition, not only assents to the truth of the promise of the gospel, but receives and rests upon Christ and His righteousness, therein held forth, for pardon of sin, and for the accepting and accounting of his person righteous in the sight of God for salvation.

God Calls Us to Repentance:

Psalm 119:155-156

Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not seek Your statutes. Great is Your mercy, O LORD; give me life according to Your rules.

God's People Confess Their Sin

Almighty God, rich in mercy to all those who call upon You; Hear us as we come to You, humbly confessing our sins and transgressions and imploring Your mercy and forgiveness. We have broken Your holy laws by our deeds and by our words, and by the sinful affections of our hearts. We confess before You our disobedience and ingratitude, our pride and willfulness. We confess all our rebellion and failures toward You, Your holy church, and our fellow men. Have mercy upon us, most merciful Father, and of Your great goodness grant that we may hereafter serve and please You in newness of life; through the merit and mediation of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Silent Confession

God Assures Us of Forgiveness in Christ: Matthew 5:6

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

*The Hymn of Thanksgiving Hymn 59

"Forever Settled in the Heavens" (Psalm 119:89-97)

God's People Worship through Giving: Acts 20:35

In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how He himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'

Offertory

God Calls His People to Prayer: Psalm 119:169-170

Let my cry come before you, O LORD; give me understanding according to your word! Let my plea come before you; deliver me according to your word.

"My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less"

*The Benediction

*The Response: Hymn 168

"I Greet Thee, Who My Sure Redeemer Art" (stanza 5)

Our hope is in no other save in thee; our faith is built upon thy promise free; O grant to us such stronger hope and sure that we can boldly conquer and endure.
