Includes a CD for students to play along with and be a part of a real band. There are nine units in this book, starting with the basic blues scale in C, then moving to the keys of D, G, A, and E. This step-by-step approach ensures progress, always building on previously learned skills.

Includes recordings, and MIDI files are available as free downloads below. Color Me Jazz, Book 2 contains 13 authentic-sounding jazz piano teaching pieces written for the intermediate level. Distinctive jazz melodic, rhythmic, and harmonic qualities are expressed throughout the pieces in this book. This brand new collection of early intermediate original jazz solos by Kevin Olson and Edwin McLean is sure to open the door for students to discover a new avenue of self-expression and originality! Through these creative new pieces students are encouraged to explore the variety of styles within the jazz idiom and experiment with their own unique improvisatory ideas! Play and Download MP3 Files. Is an entirely new collection of original Latin American dance music that brilliantly recreates the variety of Latin American jazz forms Conga, Rhumba, Merengue, Paso Doble, and more. Rich in rhythmic flavor, students will love playing these challenging solos.

What a fun book for lovers of four-hand music! Following the success of the In the Key of Jazz solo books, Olson and McLean team up again with a great new set of original jazz duets, with styles ranging from swing to Cuban salsa, and a gorgeous new ballad, Alone in a Crowd. Book 2, for the intermediate piano student, takes jazz expression to an entirely new level!
