

Personal Perspectives from Long-Term Survivors of HIV/AIDS

Name (This can be your full name, initials, or a nickname)
---	--

Year of HIV Diagnosis
-----------------------	--

Current Location or Hometown
------------------------------	--

Do you want to include your photo (or an image that represents you)?	Yes	<input type="checkbox"/>	No	<input type="checkbox"/>
If so, please attach the image to your response when you submit this form.

Question 1: How do you define what a long-term survivor is?

--

Question 2: This year's HIV Long Term Survivor's Awareness Day's Theme is "AIDS at 40: Envisioning a Future We Never Imagined", what does this statement mean to you?

--

Question 3: From your perspective, how has HIV and AIDS changed over time? What has not changed?

--

Question 4: What is one important thing you think Canadians should know about HIV Long-Term Survivors?

--

Question 5: What is one thing you would say to someone who is newly diagnosed with HIV?

--

Question 6: Is there anything else you would like to share?

--

For follow-up...

How would you like us to contact you if we need to?

	Telephone or text message (please provide the number)
	Email (please provide your email address)

Are you currently a member of the CPPN?

	Yes		No	If you are not a member but would like to join, follow this link to complete your registration form:	Membership (cppnrcps.ca)
--	-----	--	----	--	---

The CPPN recognizes that your time is valuable and so is your willingness to share your lived experience and your personal perspectives. So, we would like to offer you $25.00 for your participation in our HIV Long-term Survivors campaign. If you wish to receive this payment, please provide your full name and mailing address below.

--

Thank you so much for your willingness to share your perspective with us.

When you have completed this form, please email it to jrpotts@cppnrcps.ca. Please note that our intention is to post the responses we receive to our Website, our Facebook page, our Twitter feed, and we will publish all responses together in our next edition of "Interconnected". By submitting this form, you are indicating your understanding that your responses will be public as will your identity (in any way you choose to identify yourself). However, the information you provide us related to your payment will be held in strict confidence and stored in a secure space.

Again, thank you.