Reflections—26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Amazing!

That is what I thought and felt this past Friday with our “Movie in the Park.” It attracted a hundred souls—kids, families and adults. It was a beautiful night showing “The Jungle Book,” which everyone loved. We handed out a bag of rosaries along with lemonade, pop corn, glowing winglets and candy bags! (See photo on front.)

I am thankful to ALL who helped and all who continue to help spreading Jesus’ Gospel and Mission—to go out to save souls . This is the main message of the Archdiocese of Baltimore’s reorganization plan, along with, firstly, our own conversion deeper into Jesus’ disciples. We need to keep converting and going out to those around us to share the Gospel

The Mission Readiness Committee has done a fantastic job in finalizing our “Readiness Statement”—that is, who we are with all our blessings and challenges in our Parish Family of St Peter and St Patrick (see online, at: www.stpetersofhancock.org). We have tried to implement what you have suggested, and look forward soon to discerning with other parishes and the Archdiocese how we will thrive, not just survive, into the future!

So we need to keep making apple dumplings, engaging youth and seniors, beautifying our grounds and wonderful buildings, socials, dances, playing softball, continuing religious education, energizing various committees and, above all, worshipping the Lord especially at Sunday Mass!

~Fr. Jack Lombardi
