SECTION 1: THE GRAND ENTRANCE

WWW.BETTERBEATSDJ.COM

The Grand Entrance is really what gets the party going. It can be one of the most exciting and exhilarating moments of your day. This is where an experienced MC with the right personality comes into play. You want someone who can deliver a lively introduction that can also be fun, creative, and humorous.

There's one very important thing to remember in order to have a successful Grand Entrance: Go over the pronunciations of all names with the DJ ahead of time—not at the reception!

Everything should be personal; always use first names. Make it clear to your DJ that you prefer to be called by your first names, instead of "the bride and groom," if that is your preference. You may also want to write the introductions yourself, or even collaborate with the DJ.

With that being said, there are several options for the Grand Entrance, depending on the personalities of the bride and groom. (Weddings Receptions That Rock by Rich Amooi)

Bride & Groom Only

It can be fun for both of you as your guests stand and greet you with cheers. Pick out a fun song and enjoy! If you are using first and last names and the bride will take the groom's last name, put the bride's name after the groom's, so that everyone can hear her first name next to her new last name.

Parents & Bridal Party

The DJ introduces your parents, the bridal party, and you by your first and last names. Your bridal party can enter in pairs or one person at a time. Have the DJ play one of your favorite upbeat songs, and enjoy the experience as everyone welcome's you into the room like rock stars.

Top That!

If your bridal party is playful, this is a simple yet fun way to give them a moment in the limelight. Each couple tries to top the last couple's dance moves. You can use the same song for everyone or switch it up and play a different song for each couple.

YOUR RECEPTION

My Boogie Shoes

Surprise all the members of the bridal party by giving them each a wacky pair of fuzzy, colorful, animal slippers, and have them all dance their way into the ballroom to the song "Boogie Shoes" by KC and the Sunshine Band.

And Now...Your Wedding All-Stars!

This is a high-energy introduction that is a lot of fun and takes the energy to the next level. Have your MC introduce you and the members of the bridal party as though they are professional athletes at eh big game. Make sure you pick out an up-tempo song to go along with this!

"Starting at ring bearer and tipping the scales at whopping 44 pounds, a graduate of Blue Hills Pre-School, Johnny Garcia!"

Introduction With Bios

This is fun and will get a bunch of laughs, and is a big surprise for your bridal party members since they don't know you are doing this! Shhh. It's a surprise! You can write these bios yourself or give the DJ information about each individual so they can create them. Give as much dirt as possible for each member of the bridal party without revealing anything too personal or information that might embarrass them. Then just add some fun music!

MUSIC

SUGGESTIONS FOR GRAND ENTRANCE

This song is important, so choose it wisely. Make it fun and make it upbeat! You can do a particular movie theme, such as music from Star Wars or Rocky, or maybe a game show theme, or just choose a popular song that will get the guests clapping their hands as you enter the room. It could be an older classic or a current song that's played on the radio today. Here are a few of the most popular songs for the Grand Entrance:

"Gonna Fly Now" (theme from Rocky) by Bill Conti

"Star Wars" (main theme) by John Williams

"Celebration" by Kool & the Gang

"Beautiful Day" by U2

"Thunderstruck" by AC/DC

"This Will Be (an Everlasting Love)" by Natalie Cole

"Eye of the Tiger" by Survivor

"I Gotta Feeling" by the Black Eyed Peas

"Now That We Found Love" by Heavy D & the Boyz

"Good Life" by OneRepublic

"Signed, Sealed, Delivered, I'm Yours" by Stevie Wonder

"You Make My Dreams Come True" by Hall & Oats

Oats

"Get Ready for This" by 2 Unlimited

"Another One Bites the Dust" by Queen
