DREAM BIGGER. START SMALLER.

Greater Module 2: Burn The Plows

This Session's Key Idea: To pursue a new life that is greater, we first have to make a decisive break with our old lives.

Questions:

- 1) Do you feel as if something is holding you back from pursuing God's design to do something greater in your life? If so, what is holding you back?
- 2) Read about Elisha's calling to prophetic ministry in 1 Kings 19:19-21.
- 3) Would you say that, at this point in your life, you are surrendered to God and ready to sacrifice to fulfill His will? Why or Why not?
- 4) What plow do you think God is calling you to burn? How do you think burning it will help you pursue the goal of greater things in your life?

My Action Step:

What kind of decisive break do you need to make with your past if you are going to move on to God's greater life for you? And what outward action could serve as a sign to you and to others that you're really making this break?

Plan your own "plow-burning" ceremony. Think about things like this: What are you going to do? What do you need for it? What's the right time? the right place? Who could you ask to witness or
