Please consider sponsoring a young missionary: "My name is Anastasia Wasylinko (daughter of a Ukrainian Priest, Fr. Andre), and I am currently a third-year student at Carleton University in Ottawa, although my home province is BC. At Carleton, I discovered Catholic Christian Outreach (CCO), which is a university student movement committed to helping young adults rediscover their faith and encounter Christ in a new and dynamic way. One of the ways that CCO does this is through mission trips, and I am thrilled to be part of the mission group going to Uganda in July. There, my fellow students and I, led by CCO missionaries, will be serving on a CCO campus to form their leadership team through prayer and training. In order to go on mission, I am responsible to raise $1,140 in order to cover costs such as airfare and accommodations. I prayerfully ask that you consider donating towards my cause. CCO is a registered charity and all donations are tax-deductible. It is possible to donate directly through my page on their website, the link to which will be put below. Thank you, and God Bless. ~Anastasia Wasylinko" https://cco.ca/mission\_participants/anastasia-wasylinko/
