This book is perfect for group classes, but if a student decides to use this book for a self-study course, they will come across a number of obstacles. The book has a number of partner activities, speaking exercises and occasional sections that call for the assistance of a teacher or tutor.

The book also uses some vocabulary which is not explained clearly or not explained at all and a dictionary will more than likely be necessary for students to have on hand. If you are, for example, planning to live in a Dutch speaking country for an extended period of time, then Routledge Intensive Dutch Course will give you enough information to prepare you for your stay and help you communicate with the locals.

This intensive Dutch course is perfect for beginners who truly want to be able to speak Dutch in a short amount of time. Routledge Intensive Dutch Course helps students who are enrolled in a group or private classes put their four language skills to use and acquire useful knowledge about the Dutch language.
