All rights reserved. No article or part thereof may be reprinted without the permission of the Editor who is responsible for the content of each issue.

Notes for Contributors:

KIVUNG is concerned with all branches of linguistics, including applied linguistics. Preference is given to contributions of general theoretical interest, to articles dealing with the description of the languages of Papua New Guinea, and to the application of linguistic research to the teaching of languages.

KIVUNG publishes original articles and book reviews. Space is made available for brief comments on points arising out of recent publications

All articles, as well as books for review and listing, should be sent to the Editor.

Authors of articles and reviews are allowed six reprints gratis; they may receive additional copies at cost.

Typescripts: The top copy of the typescript should be submitted and, if possible a carbon copy as well. Authors should hold one carbon copy for the correction of proofs.

Stylesheet: Contributors are requested to follow the recommendations in the Stylesheet of the Linguistic Society of America.

Proofs: Proofs will be sent to the author who will be expected to correct them and return them to the Editor, by airmail where appropriate, within ten days of receipt. The author will not be sent his original typescript with the proofs

The Linguistic Society of Papua New Guinea was founded in 1967 to promote the study of linguistics and to provide for its members a forum for discussions. The Society holds monthly meetings during the academic year at which original papers are presented and special topics discussed.

Office Bearers for 1972: Norman Draper (President), John Lynch (Hon. Sec.), Frans Liefink (Hon. Treasurer), Andras Balint, Ray Brown, Barry Irwin, Keith Johnson, Helko Schaefer, Ralph Wingfield (Executive Committee).
