Testimonial from Jane Lee:

I brought my own shirt to Big Frog, and they charged me $19 to have it embroidered. This would have been cheaper had I bought the shirt from them. I had ordered what I liked online and then took it in. This was not a problem, and they were very nice. They did tell me that they work with the company that I bought my shirt from, and they would have ordered that for me. I left feeling that they were happy to have my business, and they wanted to keep me happy.
