

September 2019

My dream is to watch my granddaughter grow into an accomplished woman, who is kind and contributes to making our world a better place.

From the hands of the old, to the new.

August 2020

I have dreamed for many years about having my own home that I built in the country. I learned about visualization and positive images to help bring your dream into reality.

The journey starts with a Dream

Lise

After many years and lots glitches the universe slowly began to make things happen that put me (and clint) in a position to make the dream come true. I believe in the power of dreams and vision.
