President's Message

As I draft greetings for the 2020 Saskatchewan Music Festival season, my thoughts go to all of the preparations for festivals that are happening simultaneously, and it makes me smile. Students are looking after the details and the big pictures of their performances, and our many volunteers who make up the local festival committees are busy! Parents, grandparents, teachers and audience members are marking the festival dates on their 2020 calendars. We are all anticipating that special time of year when the adjudicators roll into town and our classical music communities come to life. SMFA Festival communities are vibrant in every corner of our vast province. This also makes me smile. Once a year we meet at music festival to see old festival friends. Every year festival veterans welcome newcomers to their special music community. A bit of catching up happens while the adjudicators write, then there is that moment of silence while the performer alone hears the music that they are about to share. The moment after the performance, before the applause begins, is when we all realize the reward of our efforts.

So let's celebrate what we've built. Let's continue to congratulate long time participants, volunteers and communities and to show the ropes to the many new members of our music festival community. Please thank our many donors for their patronage and recognize the support from SaskCulture through the Lotteries Trust Fund. They must know that their support of our vision of a classical music community is sincerely appreciated.

On behalf of the SMFA Provincial Board, a huge thanks to our Saskatchewan communities that host our classical music competitions. Thank you for building music communities where our young musicians can grow, and we can all benefit.

Sherry Sproule, SMFA President

(Moose Jaw, 2012) Ron has been honored as a winner in the National Auditions of the American College of Musicians, MATS competition and Kiwanis Festival.
