Historic Leslie Arkansas is the site for the annual Leslie Mountain Man Rendezvous October 11th, 12th and 13th, with early set up on Thursday, October 10th. The event is sponsored by EARA, the Leslie VFW and Leslie American Legion again this year. There will be firewood, hooters and water on site. There will be a $10 camp fee to help cover the cost of the hooters.

Friday and Saturday, the camps will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday is usually reserved for packing up for home, but there will probably still be a few visitors. School day is Friday, with the Leslie Middle School scheduled for arrival around 1:30 p.m. and they will stay for about an hour; be prepared for about 150 students.

The cooking contest will be open to campers only. You can cook either a side dish or dessert, but there will be some "secret" ingredients that you must use which you can pick up at the Hetrick tent or at the Ladies tea. Remember, the cooking contest is not for only for ladies!!!

There will be archery and hawk areas, plus a berm has been built for the black power shoot. Here's a rough schedule of Saturday events for campers:

10 a.m. Ladies Tea at the EARA tent

2 p.m. Black powder shoot – rifles and pistols

5:30 p.m. Cooking contest entries to the EARA tent

6:00 p.m. Potluck-meat provided by EARA
