Thirty-first Sunday of Ordinary Time.

All Hollow's Eve. PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY

Which is the first of all the commandments? Jesus replied. This is the first: Listen, Israel, the Lord our God , is the one, only Lord, and you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength. The second is this: You must love your neighbor as yourself. Mk 12, 28-31

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear brothers and sisters,

We are about to celebrate a very beautiful feast on Monday – the Solemnity of All Saints. It is an impressive feast that reminds us of what is our calling. Padre Pio said that we should not conform to a little life, with a little happiness. We have been called to share in the fullness of life and joy that God has. We have been created in his image and likeness. Many times, I feel that we do not understand what that means to the full. To understand do the following, remember the happiest moment of your life, when you could not be happier, that instant make it eternal – this is what God has designed for us. We have lost this perspective be it by our sins, our fears, our complexes, our anxieties. Thus, this feast comes to tell us that God has come to restore it completely.

On Tuesday, we will spend the day praying for all those that have gone before us that share in our baptism. Many times, we think this feast is for all the dead, but it is not. We pray for all those who share baptism with us and ask God to receive them into His Kingdom. For this reason, we have nine masses dedicated to all the intentions that you have put.

As we pray to join the saints and for all those who share our baptism that have gone before us, let us also ask the Lord the grace to start living here the fullness of our calling. I remind all the youth that this Friday we have Youth Group, and we will have a Parish Friendsgiving on Friday November 12 at 7 PM… please put it on your calendar.

May God bless you! Saint Francis de Sales Pray for Us!

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

Estamos a punto de celebrar una fiesta muy hermosa el lunes: la solemnidad de Todos los Santos. Es una fiesta impresionante que nos recuerda cuál es nuestra vocación. Padre Pio dijo que no debemos conformarnos con un poco de vida, con un poco de felicidad. Hemos sido llamados a compartir la plenitud de la vida y el gozo que tiene Dios. Hemos sido creados a su imagen y semejanza. Muchas veces, siento que no entendemos plenamente lo que eso significa. Para entender, haga lo siguiente: recuerde el momento más feliz de su vida, cuando no podría ser más feliz, ese instante hágalo eterno: esto es lo que Dios ha diseñado para nosotros. Hemos perdido esta perspectiva ya sea por nuestros pecados, nuestros miedos, nuestros complejos, nuestras ansiedades. Así, esta fiesta viene a decirnos que Dios ha venido a restaurarla por completo.

El martes pasaremos el día orando por todos aquellos que nos han precedido y que comparten nuestro bautismo. Muchas veces pensamos que esta fiesta es para todos los muertos, pero no lo es. Oramos por todos aquellos que comparten el bautismo con nosotros y le pedimos a Dios que los reciba en Su Reino. Por eso, tenemos nueve misas dedicadas a todas las intenciones que has puesto.

Mientras oramos para unirnos a los santos y por todos aquellos que comparten nuestro bautismo que nos han precedido, pidamos también al Señor la gracia de comenzar a vivir aquí la plenitud de nuestro llamado. Les recuerdo a todos los jóvenes que este viernes tenemos un Grupo de Jóvenes, y tendremos un Día de Acción de los Amigos de la Parroquia el viernes 12 de noviembre a las 7 pm… por favor anótelo en su calendario. ¡Que Dios te bendiga! ¡San Francisco de Sales ¡Ruega por nosotros!

Caros irmãos e irmãs

Estamos prestes a celebrar uma belíssima festa na segunda-feira - a Solenidade de Todos os Santos. É uma festa impressionante que nos lembra qual é a nossa vocação. Padre Pio disse que não devemos nos conformar com um pouco de vida, com um pouco de felicidade. Fomos chamados a compartilhar a plenitude de vida e a alegria de Deus. Fomos criados à sua imagem e semelhança. Muitas vezes, sinto que não entendemos totalmente o que isso significa. Para entender faça o seguinte, lembre-se do momento mais feliz da sua vida, quando você não poderia estar mais feliz, aquele instante que a torna eterna - é isso que Deus planejou para nós. Perdemos essa perspectiva seja por nossos pecados, nossos medos, nossos complexos, nossas ansiedades. Assim, esta festa vem para nos dizer que Deus veio para restaurá-lo completamente.

Na terça-feira, passaremos o dia orando por todos aqueles que nos precederam e que participam de nosso batismo. Muitas vezes pensamos que essa festa é para todos os mortos, mas não é. Oramos por todos aqueles que compartilham o batismo conosco e pedimos a Deus que os receba em Seu Reino. Por isso, temos nove missas dedicadas a todas as intenções que você colocou.

Enquanto oramos para nos unir aos santos e por todos aqueles que compartilham nosso batismo que nos precederam, peçamos também ao Senhor a graça de começar a viver aqui a plenitude do nosso chamado. Lembro a todos os jovens que nesta sexta-feira teremos o Grupo de Jovens, e teremos um Dia de Ação da Amizade na Paróquia na sexta-feira, 12 de novembro às 19h ... por favor, coloque no seu calendário. Que Deus te abençoe!

São Francisco de Sales ora por nós!

Fr. Francisco
