"Dear Lord,

I thank You for my family.

Thank You for their love and all the good and nice things we experience together.

Thank You for the trials, too, because it is in these experiences that we grow and become close to each other.

Without my family, life would be lonely, forsaken and with no direction.

Today, I personally commit myself to love my family always, as You love us all.

*I also pray to You for the families of my brothers and sisters, the families of my children and grandchildren, nephews and nieces, cousins and all relatives, the families of friends, and all the families in this world.
To Your love I commend all families who have remained without love and peace because Sin has destroyed them.*

Give them back the strength for love and peace and heal their wounds.

Lord, today I ask You to make love the center of everything in my family.

Let love heal all wounds from yesterday and let joy make its abode in us. Amen."

GOSPEL: Luke 2:41-52

Priest: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke

All:* Glory be to You, Lord!

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

Priest: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ.
