This is a noisy world we live in, Lord! Sometimes it is challenging to hear Your voice. Like Elijah, we look for You in strong winds, earthquakes and lightening. We forget how gentle You are. Gentle us so that we can hear, discern and listen to Your tiny whispering voice. Help us create out-of-the-way places and spaces where we can listen to Your voice. Give us contemplative peace that we can experience You walking through the waters of our life experience. Be the calm in the center of our chaos, Ancient Whispering God! In the midst of all the noise and sounds which scream at us, help us not to miss the marvelous ways You bless us and are with us. In Spirit us not to be afraid when the silence seems deafening and empty. We are humble at the simplicity of Your presence, the gentleness of power, and the faithfulness of Your voice. Gentle us to listen!

GRADUAL (Psalm 107:29-30)

Priest: [The Lord] hushed the storm to murmur; the waves of the sea were stilled.

All: Praise They rejoiced that the sea had grown calm, that God brought them to the harbor they longed for.

SECOND READING: Romans 9:1-5

ALLELUIA (Psalm 89:10)

Priest: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Priest: You rule the raging sea; You still its swelling waters.

All: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

GOSPEL: Matthew 14:22-33

Priest: A reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew

All: Glory be to You, Lord!

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat and precede him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When it was evening he was there alone. Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it. During the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them walking on the sea. When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. "It is a ghost," they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come."

Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!" Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" After they got into the boat, the wind died down. Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying, "Truly, you are the Son of God."

Priest: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise be to You, Lord Jesus Christ.
