

Richard Still, is a licensed physical therapist from Oconto, Nebraska and one of 3 owners of TEAM Physical Therapy, PC headquartered in Broken Bow. Richard has volunteered his physical therapy and sports medicine skills at various Nebraska junior high, high school and armature rodeos since 2010. A graduate of Anselmo-Merna High School, Richard attended Hastings College and served on the student training staff. After graduation from UNMC in Omaha with a Masters of Physical Therapy in 1997 he returned to Custer County to begin his physical therapy career. Richard has provided sports coverage to multiple high school teams in central Nebraska, most recently working with the South Loup Bobcats.

In his spare time Richard enjoys ranching, hunting, fishing and forging knives, bits and spurs.