Christian Methodist Episcopal Church

“Accepting the Challenge of Jesus to Be-come and to Make Disciples”

Greetings in the name of the One who calls us to be Ambassadors of God's Kingdom!

I thank my God for the blessings bestowed upon me and my wife, Meliah upon arriving in Decatur, Illinois through the love and warmth of the wonderful men, women, youth and children assembled here at Trinity.

Over the past several weeks the saints of Trinity have worked very diligently to prepare another outstanding celebration. We thank the Lord for the tireless efforts and faithful leadership of Sister Melissa Bradford as Chairperson. As we celebrate our Annual Patriotic Musical Tea, we continue to experience God's grace and love through our Christian fellowship as brothers and sisters in Christ. I thank God for this day, because it demonstrates the fruits produced from the common spirit of servitude in our faith community, and shows that Jesus truly continues to be in our midst. I commend all committee chairpersons for the work they have done to make this day special. I offer a special word of thanks to the Souvenir Booklet committee for their labor of love and time in compiling this wonderful keepsake. Finally, I thank God for each person who sacrificially gave time, talent and resources to the Trinity family in order to make this event a success.

The Annual Patriotic Tea has a rich history and tradition; it has become one of the hallmark events of the Decatur community. Decatur can take pride in the wonderful diversity of vocal talent that provides soul-stirring singing and music. This event also serves an important function in our Stewardship campaign. Finally, the Annual Patriotic Tea also gives the disciples of Trinity an opportunity to honor their ancestral heritage. This great cloud of witnesses has spurred our congregation forward throughout its history.

In the spirit of gratitude, I would like to thank you for celebrating with and supporting the saints at Trinity. It is my prayer that we will continue to be-come ever faithful disciples of Jesus Christ.

Yours in Christ,

Lift Every Voice and Sing

verse 1

Lift every voice and sing,
'Til earth and heaven ring,
Ring with the harmonies of Liberty;
Let our rejoicing rise
High as the listening skies,
Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.
Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us,
Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us;
Facing the rising sun of our new day begun,
Let us march on 'til victory is won.

verse 2

Stony the road we trod,
Bitter the chast'ning rod,
Felt in the days when hope unborn had died;
Yet with a steady beat,
Have not our weary feet
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?
We have come over a way that with tears has been watered,
We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered,
Out from the gloomy past,
'Til now we stand at last
Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

verse 3

God of our weary years,
God of our silent tears,
Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;
Thou who has by Thy might
Led us into the light,
Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
Lest, our hearts drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee;
Shadowed beneath Thy hand,
May we forever stand,
True to our God,
True to our native land.

WE LOVE YOU

In Memoriam
of Our Loved Ones

In Loving Memory Of My Husband
Rev. Dr. Eugene B. Green

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than a house full of sacrifices with strife.

A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance among the brethren.

When We Ask Why

God's beautiful plan
Is sometimes concealed,
But someday His purpose
Will be fully revealed.

Someday God's wisdom
Will make it very plain
Why problems were permitted
And how He uses pain.

Disease, tragedy, fear~
Will someday make sense
When God makes all things clear.

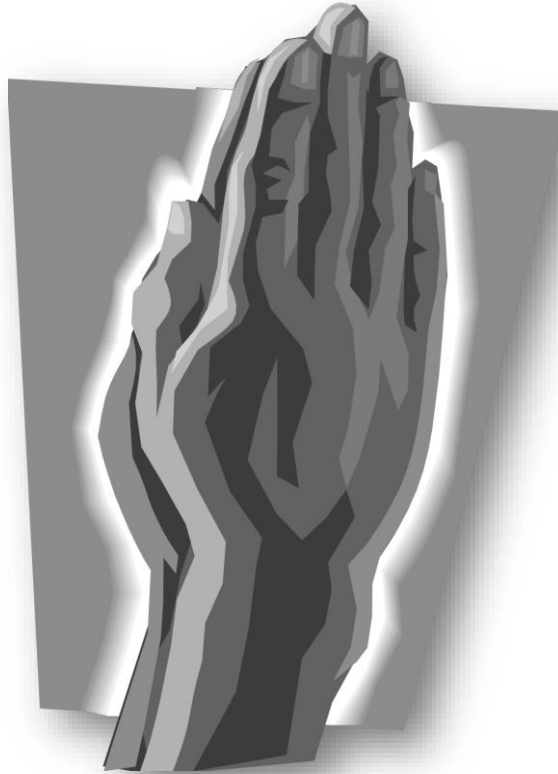

We'll see the Lord's purpose
From heavens point of view,
And we'll understand
In ways we never knew.

Until we're home with God
Some answers will have to wait.
Lord we'll trust and obey;
Lord help us walk by faith.

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
 Oh, so happy and so bright!
 There is perfect joy and beauty
 In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
 Every restless tossing passed;
 I am now at peace forever,
 Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly
 Trod the valley of the shade?
 Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
 Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me
 In that way so hard to tread;
 And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
 Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
 For I love you dearly still;
 Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
 Pray to trust our Fathers Will.

There is work still waiting for you,
 So you must not idly stand;
 Do it now, while life remaineth-
 You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
 He will gently call you Home;
 Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
 Oh, the joy to see you come!

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me.
God wanted me now. He set me Free.

Notes

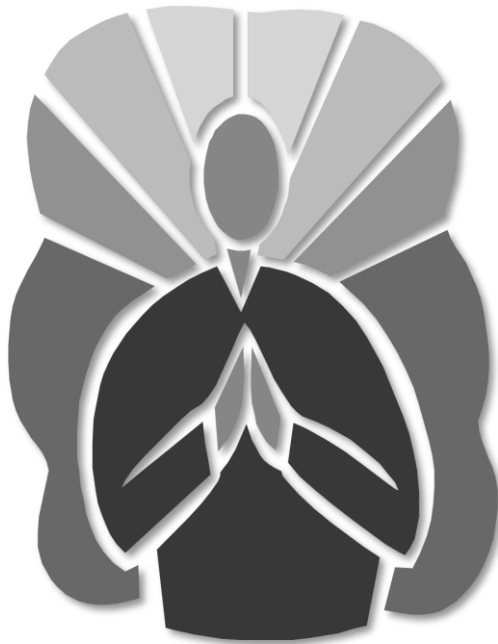

Concentrate on this

*To get something you never had
You have to do something you never did.
When God takes something from your grasp.
He's not punishing you, but merely opening your hands to receive Something better.*

"The will of God will never take you where the Grace of God will not protect you."

*Something good will happen to you;
Something that you have been waiting to hear.*

Over 50 Years of Marriage

Dearest Mother and Father,

I remember when you got married; I was only 5 years old. I had one sister but I instantly inherited three additional sisters and two brothers. Ours was an unusual blended family. But each of you gave love to the other person's children and we became a cohesive family who grew closer and learned to love each other as God would have us to do. You both loved and supported the endeavors of your children and grandchildren, in various ways. Your immediate and extended family has always been able to count on you when needed. When you both retired from Caterpillar, that gave you even more time to minister to the needs of others as you faithfully visited the sick in hospitals and nursing homes and served faithfully in your church as members of the choir, children church, Sunday school and the usher board. After over 50 years of marriage, your love for each other is still strong. Your marriage serves as a role model for other married couples. May your marriage continue to grow stronger with each passing year.

Love Always,

Your Daughter – Dr. Priscilla Palmer

CONGRATULATIONS TRINITY!
ON YOUR 67TH ANNUAL TEA

Lord Bless This Day Ps 118:24

"This is the day which the LORD has made; we will rejoice and be glad in it."

Congratulations Trinity

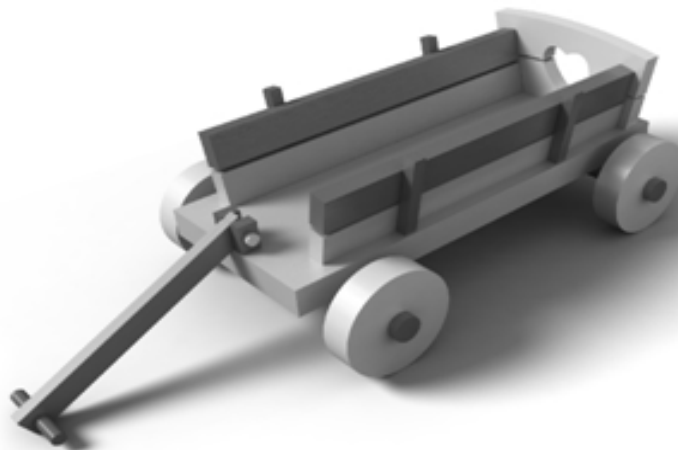

Work hard and you will be a leader. Be lazy and you will end up a slave.

Worry is a heavy burden, but kind words always bring cheer.

You are better off to do right, than to lose your way by doing wrong

Anyone too lazy to cook will starve, but a hard worker is a valuable treasure

The Tea's History

Trinity CME Church held its first Tea in the original church Fellowship Hall at North and Jackson Streets. It was sponsored by the Council of Women under the administration of Reverend D.S. Cunningham. The tables were beautifully decorated with patriotic emblems. The atmosphere was full of the spirit of friendly fellowship and conversation.

Over the years, the event flourished into a beautiful community and church activity. It is supported by members and friends in and out of town. It has become Trinity's leading event of the year.

We, the members of Trinity CME Church, will continue to strive each year to make it better!
