The Coming of Christ and the Man of Sin

Has It Happened Yet?

¹ Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers,

² not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come.

³ Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction,

⁴ who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God.

⁵ Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things?

⁶ And you know what is restraining him now so that he may be revealed in his time.

⁷ For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way.

⁸ And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming.

⁹ The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders,

¹⁰ and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

¹¹ Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false,

¹² in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

Antichrist in Reformation History

WITHOUT QUESTION, THE MOST DISAGREED upon phrase in our confession of faith is found in the chapter on the church. It reads, "Neither can the Pope of Rome in any sense be head thereof, but is that Antichrist, that man of sin, and son of perdition, that exalts himself in the church against Christ, and all that is called God; whom the Lord shall destroy with the brightness of his coming" (LCF 26.4). This identical phrasing is to be found in the parent documents the Westminster Confession of Faith (1646), the Savoy Declaration (1658), and the 1677 London Confession of Faith.¹

Not only this, but you find Antichrist identified in one way or another with Rome and the Papacy in The French Waldensian Confession of Mérindol (1543), the Hungarian Synod of Gönc (1566), the Italian Lattanzio Ragnoni's Formulario (1559), the Confession of Faith in the Geneva Bible

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 2 All Rights Reserved

¹ In his True Confessions, Jim Renihan capitalizes all uses of "Antichrist." However, he only capitalizes "Man" and "Son" with the 1677 LCF. The use is capital letters is difficult because back then they capitalized all kinds of words that would not today. Therefore, I don't think we can take say much about this from the capitalization. See Jim Renihan, True Confessions: Baptist Documents in the Reformed Family (Owensboro, KY: RBAP, 2004), 166.

(1560), the Confession of the Spanish Congregation of London (1560/61), the Netherlands famous Belgic Confession (1561), the Transylvanian Synods of Gyulafehérvár and Marosvásárhely (1566), The Czech Bohemian Confession (1573), the Scottish King's Confession (1581), the German Bremen Consensus (1595), the Irish Articles (1615); the Lutheran Smalcald Articles and Book of Concord adopted in Germany and Scandinavia, and there are many others.

As you can tell, this was pretty much the view of the Reformers. These include Martin Luther, John Calvin, Ulrich Zwingli, Philipp Melanchthon, Martin Bucer, Theodore Beza, as well as English theologians Cranmer, Latimer, Ridley, Tyndale, Bradford, King James, and many many more.² The idea goes back prior to the Reformation with men like the Italian Dominican friar Florentine Reformer Girolamo Savonarola (1452 – 1498) who called Pope Alexander VI the Antichrist. It went even before him with the likes of Joachim Calaber (ca. 1132-1202), Henry of Herford (c. 1300 – 1370), John Wycliffe (c. 1320-1384), and John Hus (1369-1415).³

² Referenced in Stanko Jambrek, "The Teaching of Christ and the Antichrist in the Thought of Mattias Flacius Illyricus," KAIROS – Evangelical Journal of Theology IX:2 (2015): 225 (221-40). https://www.academia.edu/23272406/The_teaching_of_Christ_and_the_Antichrist_in_the_thought_of_Matthias_Flacius_Illyricus. ³ Ibid.

With such a pedigree, why might people object so strenuously to this point? I can tell you it isn't because most that object don't think that the papacy is in many ways against Christ. It has more to do with the language. Specifically, it uses the definite English article: "THAT antichrist ... THAT man of sin." A definite article means one not many. Furthermore, the language is taken from 2 Thessalonians 2:3 which talks about a "man" and a "son." Both of these are masculine singular nouns. They are not plural. The problem is, of course, unless they are talking about one particular Pope like Savonarola did —because the word Pope is also a masculine singular noum—they are abusing the English language, not to mention the Greek.

If it had said "the papacy" is antichrist (small "a"), I don't think there would be as many objections. Yet, it still directly quotes 2 Thessalonians 2:3 which talks about a singular man of sin and son of perdition. What I do not want to do today is spend a lot of time explaining why all the Protestants believed that the Pope or Papacy was this "man." It should be obvious from the Inquisition, to the excommunication, to the jailing, to the death penalty, to their doctrine surrounding salvation, their idolatry, their sacramental system, the deep moral corruption of the hierarchy, their perversion of the original Mass, and so on why they would have thought this way. In fact, these are the very things pointed out in these Confessions.

Instead, because this topic is at the heart of our passage today, I want to try and discover what Paul meant by these and other things. Honestly, it doesn't matter what anyone else thinks. It matters what the man who wrote it thought. Just here there is a huge problem though. It is expressed this way by Augustine, "I confess that I am entirely ignorant of what he means to say."⁴ F. F. Bruce notices that "there are few New Testament passages which can boast such a variety of interpretations as this."⁵ And one scholar just makes up a poem for his interpretation,

> Commentators each dark passage shun, And hold their farthing [cheap] candle to the sun.⁶

So what is a pastor to do? There are two basic options. Use the Old Testament to try and figure out if Paul had anything there in mind and hope that those places are clearer. Don't use the Old Testament and go it alone. I think I'm being fair in how I put this, because if Paul is using the Old Testament and we can figure out where, but it is not being consulted, then for all intents and purposes we are going it alone, even if we have a whole continent full of people from whom we are borrowing traditions and ideas. This is interpreting the word of God on an extremely difficult subject apart from the original source(s! Unfortunately, the second option is almost always what is done on this topic. We are going to try the first and see what happens.⁷

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 5

⁴ He says this specifically about vs. 9. Augustine, City of God 20.19.2.

⁵ F. F. Bruce, New Testament History (Garden City, N.Y.: Anchor, 1969), 309. ⁶ Béda Rigaux, Saint Paul: Les Épitres aux Thessaloniciens, Études Bibliques (Paris: J. Gabalda,1956), 279. Cited in Desmond Ford, "The Abomination of Desolation in Biblical Eschatology." A Thesis Presented to the University of Manchester (July 1972), 219-20.

Getting the Timing Right

Connecting Chs. 1 and 2

From the perspective of an ancient letter, 2 Thessalonians 2 begins the body. Ch. 1 contains the prescript (1:1-2) and the thanksgiving (1:3-12). As we have seen, this lays foundations for things to come. Particularly, 1:7-10 speaks in apocalyptic tones of the dreadful day of the Lord Jesus when ⁷ Dr. Heiser had this to say when he dealt with the passage on his podcast. "Interpreting the New Testament without checking the Old Testament is foolish ... we need resources that alert us to how New Testament writers are using, reading, and interpreting the Old Testament ... Anyone you're reading about End Times theology who isn't doing this, who isn't engaging the whole issue of how does the New Testament use the Old Testament ... should be listened to with extreme caution, if not outright ignored. They are not doing the kind of exegetical work that needs to be done." As far as the statement goes, I tend to agree. Unfortunately, there aren't a lot of scholars doing this, especially on this passage. But there are some.

he will be revealed (apokalupsis) from heaven with angels in fire and flame to deal out retribution. This retribution is against those who "afflict you" and "also us," in other words, it is against the local Jews and Gentiles in Thessalonica and Corinth and seemingly all the other places he travelled.⁸

He says of these people that they "do not know God" and "do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus." This coming will bring "eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord" forever. It will also bring about the glorification of Christ "on the day" in his saints and will be marveled at among all who have believed. It seems clear that this is talking about something that is still in our own future, for nothing like this has happened yet.⁹ I say this against the backdrop of the preterist view that this chapter has been fulfilled. We will talk more about this as we go along.

⁸ At Thessalonica and Corinth, it was Jews. But for example, in Ephesus it was the Gentile Demetrius, a silversmith.

⁹ Some partial Preterists like Gentry agree. "There the Second Advental judgment brings 'everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord' (1:9)..." Kenneth L. Gentry, Jr., "The Man of Lawlessness: A Preteristic Postmillennial Interpretation of 2 Thessalonians 2," Covenant Media Foundation, http://www.cmfnow.com/articles/pt550.htm. The point is really quite important for interpretation. Those who see total fulfillment of 2 Thessalonians 2 and 1 in 70 A.D. are usually full preterists (partial preterists see it in Ch. 2). The argument would be that the destruction of the system of religion and the city had ramifications that reverberated throughout the Roman world. This is undoubtedly true, but overstated. Did that event bring "eternal destruction" to the Jews in Thessalonica? Of course not. Did not the synagogues continue? Did not Jewish persecution of Christians continue until the Jews saw that they had to once-and-for-all distance themselves theologically from Christianity by making two-powers

[©] Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 7

Chapter 2 begins with what seems to be a connection to these things and is therefore directly related. "Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers..." (2Th 2:1). The English word that connects the two passages is "coming." Jesus is coming.

Why Does This Matter?

Why is he raising this issue? It is because of what follows. "We ask you, brothers, not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the lord has come. Let no one deceive you in any way" (1-3). Someone was going around telling these baby Christians that the day of the Lord had come, and they missed it. This reminds me not a little of how movies like A Thief in the Night scared the pants off of us by showing that many will miss the Rapture. Obviously, these people are anxious and troubled.¹⁰ And, worse, it seems that it doesn't theology and other such things heresy for all Jews later in the second century and the two religions once-and-for-all went their separate ways?

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 8 All Rights Reserved

¹⁰ Like the Rapture which is really a different "coming" from the Second Coming, this may be a sign that what Paul has in mind is something other than the Second Coming, because it is hard to see how anyone could miss that. This is why I believe that 70 A.D. is at least in view. As we will see, I believe it is more than that. If they have a bad understanding of the Second Coming, it is certainly possible to think you've missed it.

take much to get them this way, which also reminds me of the way I grew up, with each new book on the latest political fiasco adding to the anxiety. Trust me when I say that living as if the world is going to blow up tomorrow, whether because of religious newspaper eschatology or political doomsday propaganda from either the left or the right is no way to live your life.

This is precisely why Paul is writing to them about this. Before we go any farther, you need to understand the pastoral point of all that we are about to look at. It isn't to give dates and cleverly hide names that you can figure out through a secret code. In their case, some of the people had actually stopped working and were doing what cults of old have done: selling all they have and living on rooftops waiting for the end of the world. Paul says, "Do not do this! If a man will not work, he will not eat." This purpose is to both comfort them with the news that they have not missed the Coming of Christ, but also to then talk them down from the ledge so that they will come back to reality and be worthy, productive members of society whom God will consider worthy of the calling he has given them. This was Martin Luther's point when someone asked him what he would do if he knew Jesus would return this afternoon. He said I would plant a tree this morning. Keep this in mind as we continue.

The "Coming" Connection

Back to our verse. The Apostle uses two different words for these comings (erochomai and parousia). Parousia is the word used in Ch. 1; erochomai is used in Ch. 2. This has caused some to see two different comings!¹¹ Well, I don't know if it has "caused" it, but because of it, they allow themselves to see two different comings: The Second Coming in the first chapter (Parousia), and the 70 A.D. coming (erochomai) in the second chapter.

In what I am going to argue, I believe that at least in Ch. 2 and perhaps in Ch. 1, we have echoes of the 70 A.D. coming in judgment, but neither chapter is primarily about that. 70 A.D. and the judgment of God upon the nation of Israel in the obliteration of her temple and mass slaughter of her people in the ravaged city of Jerusalem is a type of a greater judgment to come. Certainly, 70 A.D. is a type of this (as we will see). But it is not the Second Coming!

¹¹ For example, because he sees the whole of 2:1-12 as already fulfilled in total in 70 A.D., but not Ch. 1, Gentry has to see two different comings (erchomai in 1:10 is the Second Coming; Parousia in 2:1 is the 70 A.D. coming) and thus two different things being discussed in these two chapters.

It is not necessarily wrong to see two comings of Christ. Many argue the exact same point in Matthew 24.¹² I would as well. The disciples, after all, asked two questions. First, "Tell us, when will these things be?" (Matt 24:3). That is, when will "not one stone here be left upon another?" (2). When will the temple be destroyed? Second, "... and what will be the sign of your coming (Parousia) and of the end of the age?" Whether they believed this was all just one question or not, Jesus pretty clearly tells them that these are two distinct events. The destruction of the temple is a type of the Greater Destruction to come.

The problem is, in Matthew all those who argue this say that the Parousia is the Second Coming and the erochomai is the 70 A.D. coming. That is exactly backwards of what they then say of 2 Thessalonians. This is a great inconsistency and seems to me a reason to be skeptical of the idea that 2 Thessalonians 2 is only about 70 A.D., because it sounds like special pleading.

¹² For example, R. T. France, comments on Matthew 24:23, 30, 42.

[©] Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 11 All Rights Reserved

Furthermore, it is important to remember that this is Second Thessalonians, meaning that there was a First Thessalonians. In 1 Thessalonians, Paul discussed this same Parousia (1Th 5:1-11). We saw there that the Parousia was about the Second Coming still sometime in our own future. Because of this connection, scholars have probably rightly pointed out that "it seems nearly impossible not to see the discussion here as related to some kind of misunderstanding of that passage."¹³ And if so, then 2 Thessalonians 2 is mostly about the Second Coming.

Gathered Together

The other important idea in 2Th 2:1 is that we will be "gathered together to him." When Paul wrote this letter, it is clear that he believed both of these things were yet future events. That doesn't mean they are both future for us, but it is important to my interpretation.

This idea of being "gathered" along with Christ's "Coming" form the first two of many allusions in this passage to Jesus' Olivet Discourse (see chart below). There is a problem here as well. In Matthew, it can be argued that the "gathering" is what happens, most likely,¹⁴ after the temple is destroyed, while the "coming" refers to the Second Coming. (People who believe in the "Rapture" will take the coming and the gathering as two separate events, separated by many years). It says, the Son will "gather together His elect from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other" (Matt 24:31). The idea is that once the temple is gone, Christians will no longer be tempted to worship there, and the influence of rabbinical Judaism will not hamper the gospel going out as was happening in seemingly every town Paul went to.¹⁵

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 12 All Rights Reserved

¹³ Michael Holmes, 1 and 2 Thessalonians, The NIV Application Commentary (Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan Publishing House, 1998), 30, citing G. D. Fee, God's Empowering Presence, 228.

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 13 All Rights Reserved

¹⁴ While Jesus says this will happen "immediately after the tribulation of those days" (i.e. 70 A.D.), France seems to equivocate on this, though he calls it a "dual perspective." On one hand, he says that this is what happens once the temple is destroyed. On the other, he sees this as the very mission of the Apostles which began with their Great Commission (Matt 29:19-20). Here's a quote. "It is on the basis of that authority that he will then send his disciples to gather a new community out of all nations (28:19), and it is as a result of that ingathering that a new and far more inclusive "chosen people" will be formed to take on the mission of God's people which had hitherto been focused in Jerusalem and its temple." France, 928.

¹⁵ Gentry says, "The gathering of the elect in Matt 24:31 speaks of the gospel going out to all nations, unshackled by the constraints of Judaism. It is the beginning of the fulfillment of the Year of Jubilee. See my book, The Olivet Discourse Made Easy http://www.kennethgentry.com/olivet-discourse-made-easy-book/." This is from a comment on a blog. Kenneth L. Gentry, Jr. "The Sing of the Son of Man (2), PostmillennialWorldview.com (Nov 22, 2016). https://postmillennialworldview.com/2016/11/22/the-sign-of-the-son-of-man-2/.

Jesus in Matt. 24– 25	Parallels on the Second Coming	II Thess.
BOLD = Second Coming in the Olivet Discourse
Regular = 70 A.D. Coming in the Olivet Discourse
24: 22, 29- 31	Persecution Cut Short II. 1: 6– 7; 2: 8
24: 37- 41 (Lk 17: 22- 35)	Back-to-Back Rapture & Wrath	II. 1: 6- 10
24: 13, 22, 31, 40- 41	Surviving Believers Delivered	II. 1: 7
24: 31	Angelic Presence	II. 1: 7
24: 27- 30	Universal Perception	II. 1: 7– 8
24: 29- 30, 37- 39	Initiation of the Day of the Lord	II. 1: 7– 8
24: 30	Power and Glory	II. 1: 9
24: 31	Gathering	II. 2: 1
24: 3, 27, 37, 39	The Parousia ("Coming")	II. 2: 1, 8
24: 27, 30	Initiation of the Parousia	II. 2: 1, 8
24: 6	Alarmed the End Has Come	II. 2: 2
24: 4- 5, 23- 26	Do Not Be Deceived	II. 2: 3
24: 10- 11	Apostasy of Many II. 2: 3
24: 12	Lawlessness	II. 2: 3, 12
24: 21- 22	Opposition By Antichrist	II. 2: 3– 4, 8– 9
24: 15	Antichrist's Desolation	II. 2.4
24: 29- 30	Parousia Follows Antichrist	II. 2: 8
24: 24	Deceiving Signs and Wonders	II. 2: 9– 10
24:24	Elect Will Not Be Deceived	II. 2: 9– 14
Kurschner, Alan (2014-03-19). Antichrist Before the Day of the Lord: What Every Christian Needs to Know about the Return of Christ (p. 179). Eschatos Publishing.

Kindle Edition.

Here's the thing. Anyone who takes Jesus as referring to 70 A.D. (or any time before it) has to recognize that his "gathering" refers to the calling of Gentiles to become Christians. That's its clear meaning in Jesus' words. However, even though Paul is using the term here which appears in Jesus' sermon, he seems to be using it differently. Why? Because these Thessalonians have already been "gathered" in this sense. They have already been called. These elect now belong to Christ. Yet, he says that they have not yet been "gathered." In other words, he has some kind of a gathering in mind for these Christians that has not yet happened. This very obviously did not happen in 70 A.D.

I have no problem with Paul using Jesus' words differently, because he has a different context and purpose. But this only works, it seems to me, if there is a typological relationship between the 70 A.D. coming and the Second Coming such that what can be said about the former foreshadows the latter! This is exactly what I think it going on in 2 Thessalonians 2. Now that I've explained what I think is the timing that is in mind, let's turn to the real meat of this passage.

The Apostasy (2:3)

He begins by talking about the Day of the LORD. "For that day will not come, unless …" Unless what? Unless two things. First, "unless the rebellion comes first." Paul is saying that the Day of the LORD cannot come prior to "the rebellion." In popular eschatology, this rebellion is often tied to the supposed Rapture of vs. 1 (and the "coming;" there is no rapture in vs. 1), which is strange because it would put this rebellion that brings the Rapture after the being gathered together which takes place after the tribulation and coming of Jesus!

It is important to note here that the Day of the LORD is used throughout the OT to refer to various "comings," against the nations and against Israel and Judah. Yet here, he says that "the" rebellion must come first. The problem is, in all of those cases there was some kind of rebellion. So, is he only talking about yet another in a long series of rebellions? Or might he be talking here about the Day of the LORD that the prophets seemed to look forward to that went beyond all these other relatively minor days? I think this is exactly what is going on. This is "The Rebellion," not just a rebellion (clearly that 70 A.D. rebellion was significant). In this light, I find it interesting that in the entire section where Jesus talks about 70 A.D., he does not mention the language of "the day" until he begins talking about the Second Coming. In other words, this was not The Day of the Lord.

That said, this rebellion is the first of (at least) three very difficult things to interpret. The Greek word may actually be more familiar to you than the English! It is the word

"apostasy" (apostasia). You probably think of the word as referring to some kind of religious rebellion against God. The word means things like "defiance," "rebellion," "abandonment," "breach of faith" (like a betrayal) and so on. But this can refer to either a religious or political revolt. It is used for a political revolt in Ezra 4:15 LXX for example. As something political, Josephus calls the rebellion of Jerusalem against Rome an apostasy (Josephus, Life). Therefore, many (they are almost always postmillennialists) have seen here a prediction of this event.¹⁶ Of course, if he has in mind the 70 A.D. apostasy, then are we to think that this is the final apostasy that there is, that there is none to come, none worse? That seems to be what is required by "The Apostacy." I find that a difficult pill to swallow.

Some see it as a combination of political and religious rebellion against God. The political rebellion has to be extrapolated here (people find it with the identification of the

¹⁶ Cf. Loraine Boettner, The Millennium (Phillipsburg, NJ: P&R, 1964); Gary DeMar, Last Days Madness (Brentwood, TN, Wolgemuth & Hyatt1991); Kenneth L. Gentry, Jr., "The Man of Lawlessness: A Preteristic Postmillennial Interpretation of 2 Thessalonians 2," Covenant Media Foundation, http://www.cmfnow.com/articles/pt550.htm. R. C. Sproul, The Last Days According to Jesus (Grand Rapids, MI: Baker, 1998); B. B. Warfield, "The Millennium and the Apocalypse" in The Works of Benjamin B. Warfield: Biblical Doctrines, vol. 2 (Bellingham, WA: Logos Bible Software, 2008);

"restrainer"; more below), but the religious apostasy is obvious, especially in vv. 8-10. Certainly, the Jewish leaders throughout the lives of the Apostles in nearly every town they came to were like this, especially in a religious sense. For my part, I think these commentators are right to see this as fulfilled in the first century, to a point. The Jews were living in apostasy against God and would soon revolt against Rome to their own destruction. This fits exactly what we saw last week when we looked both at the first chapter and the early portions of Isaiah 66 which was about Jewish rebellion.

There is a sense in which you can in fact read nearly everything in 2 Thess. 2 from this perspective. This would include the "man of sin" whom they would identify as Nero (or sometimes Vespasian or Titus), the setting up for worship of himself for worship, the desecrating of the temple, the proclaiming of himself to be a virtual God, and on down the line it goes. Many good articles and books have been written on this (see n. 16) and I will not spend more time on it here. In order to see, though, why I only see this as a type, we must move to the next of the difficult questions. Who is the man of lawlessness (or the KVJ: man of sin)?

The Man of Sin (2:3-4, 8-10)

This person is the second of two things that must happen before the coming and the gathering. It says, "... and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction" (2Th 2:3). Here he is called two things. A man of lawlessness (anomia from "a" without and "nomos" law) and a son of destruction (apoleia, from which we get Apollyon). We see three things about him here. He is first, a man. Both "man" and "son" are masculine singular words. This is probably the main reason why this figure has been identified with The Antichrist (1Jn 2:18). Second, he is lawless. That is, he cares nothing about law, he mocks law, he rebels against God. Since God is the lawgiver, it presupposes he rebels against God. Third, he is a son of destruction, meaning that everywhere he goes he seeks to do harm and create chaos. Of course, this can be very subversive rather than in your face, and that would be just like Satan. But masks can't hide the truth behind them.

We began this morning talking about the man of sin and saw that almost all of the protestants took this as language for the Pope. I've also mentioned the name Nero, whom many church Fathers identified as this person. Certainly, there have been many popes who have fit this and perhaps no person in human history has embodied it more than Nero. But how do we keep ourselves from pure speculation and newspaper eschatology, whether that newspaper came out last week, 500, or 1950 years ago? My answer is, we continue reading.

Vs. 4 is key. It says that he "opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God." Without doubt, there are things here that fit Nero. Of course, to a certain degree, they also fit the idea of a Pope, although I do not think the blasphemous belief that he is the highest representative of Christ on earth is equal with thinking that he is literally God. Similar maybe, but not the same.

What's much more important is that for the first time this morning, we need to see that this language goes directly back to the Old Testament, to not one but three different passages. The first passage is Daniel 11:36. Here are the two side by side:

2 Thessalonians 2:4a	Daniel 11:36
He exalts himself against every so-called god	He will exalts himself against every god
Huperairomenos epi panta legomenon Theon	Hupothesetai epi panta Theon ύπεραιρόμενος ἐπὶ πάντα λεγόμενον θεὸν	ύψωθήσεται ἐπὶ πάντα θεὸν.

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 20 All Rights Reserved The only real difference is that Paul has added the word "socalled," presumably to clarify that he isn't actually going to exalt himself above the One True God.

This connection helps our interpretation, because if Paul is using it, then he would almost certainly have something in mind from that passage. Daniel 11 is perhaps the most detailed prophetic chapter in the Bible. It predicts the entire line of kingly succession from the Persians to Alexander to the Ptolemies to Egypt and Syria, to the Greek Seleucids and the reign of the infamous Antiochus Epiphanes.

Antiochus is infamous because this is the man who fulfilled Daniel's prophecy of the "abomination of desolation" when he, essentially, did everything that Paul predicts that the man of lawlessness will do. Yet, he did this around 168 B.C.! Here is where this gets interesting. Jesus takes the "abomination of desolation" (Dan 11:31; Matt 24:15; Mark 13:14; Luke 16:15) language and, even though Antiochus fulfilled it, establishes that there will be another that takes place within "this generation." This is exactly what happened in 70 A.D. with the Roman Emperors who surrounded the city, desecrated, and destroyed it. Emperor Hadrian eventually set up a temple to Zeus on the foundations of its rubble. So, we have a double fulfillment!

There is something else to consider. Antiochus was a Greek. The Caesars were Romans. In other words, we have more than one nationality with this one prophecy. This is where our second connection to the OT in this verse is important. Most scholars see allusions in the next part of the verse to Ezekiel 28:2:

2 Thessalonians 2:4b	Ezekiel 28:2
He takes his seat in the temple of God, procla	I sit in the seat of gods/God you make you
himself to be God.	like the heart of God.

If this allusion is correct, then we have a third nationality associated with this person, because Ezekiel's prophecy is here against the King of Tyre. That means, what Paul is doing here is building his theology of Antichrist upon a composite person. In other words, based on this, we have no reason to think he is going to simply be a "Roman." He could be. He may not be. Add to this that there is yet another OT reference in the man of lawlessness talk. This one comes from vs. 8 and Isaiah 11:4.¹⁷

2 Thessalonians 2:8	Isaiah 11:4
The lawless one will be revealed, whom the	He will smite the earth with the Word
Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth	mouth, and with the Breath of his lips shall stroy the ungodly one.

This time, it isn't just one person, but many enemies that are in mind. In the previous chapter, it was the Assyrian and others. In another parallel, Isa 30:27-30, it is again the Assyrian, only unlike the ch. 11 reference which was tied to the birth of Messiah (see vs. 1-2), this time it happened before Jesus was born. Listen to the language there. "Behold, the name of the LORD comes from afar, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke; his lips are full of fury, and his tongue is like a devouring fire; his breath is like an overflowing stream that reaches up to the neck; to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction, and to place on the jaws of the peoples a bridle that leads astray" (Isa 30:27-28) This is classic apocalyptic language, and it happened to Assyria who was brought to nothing by the Babylonians. It is this kind of non-literal previous fulfillment that makes some think that Nero and 70 A.D. is still a candidate for the fulfillment of this passage. No, fire did not literally come out of Jesus' mouth and kill Nero. He actually killed himself. But fire didn't come out of Jesus' mouth with Assyria either and it was fulfilled.

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 23 All Rights Reserved

¹⁷ On all of these I consulted Hans K. LaRondelle, "Paul's Prophetic Outline in 2 Thessalonians 2," Andrews University Seminary Studies 21:1 (Spring 1983): 61-69. https://www.andrews.edu/library/car/cardigital/Periodicals/AUSS/1983-1/1983-1-04.pdf.

Why This is Hard to Understand

Before moving to the next difficulty, Paul himself interjects what is, for us, an interlude. If you are sitting there wondering why all of this is so complicated and how it is that people can have such vast ranging interpretations as a past Roman victory, a Papal empire brought to nothing, and a future Antichrist with a Rapture and seven-year tribulation, perhaps you need to look no further than vs. 5. "Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things?"

Though he had only been there for three weeks, Paul clearly tells us here that this very topic was of such importance that in those few days he spent much time explaining all of this to them already. Now, they had apparently either forgotten it or ignored it, being taken captive by strange spirits and words and letters. What is clear here is that this was clear ... to them. What is also clear is that because it was clear to them, Paul doesn't make a lot of things clear to us, because they didn't need him to. And because of this, we are left somewhat in a confusing dark way of interpretive riddles and conundrums.

Let me say this. I think God, in his divine providence, knew this is what would happen. Therefore, he let Paul write things this way on purpose. Why might that be the case? I can think of two reasons. First, he did this to show us that you do not need to know all the details of the future (or past) in order to understand the main point. You must not be deceived into abandoning tour life for a future you either immanently expect or think has already happened. This is what cults do, not Christians.

Second, even if you did know, you have to remember that they clearly did know, and it didn't do them any good. They were still being deceived. They were still alarmed and shaken and they knew the truth better than we ever will. It didn't help them. Therefore, God knew that you and I do not need to know these things in every detail, and that is for the best of our lives here and now. Yes, he tells us something, and that is obviously important. But he doesn't tell everything.

As much as I would like to think that I might plant a tree if I knew I would die this afternoon, I'm pretty sure I wouldn't. Which means, what would that say about me if I was wrong about my expected hour of demise? Vs. 5 is therefore a very practical thing, even though it is also, perhaps, a frustrating thing for trying to understand the mysteries before us. With that said, let's move on to the next and last big problem.

The Restrainer (2:6-7)

Vv. 6-7 present us with a true difficulty. It deals with something called "the restrainer." And you know what is re- straining him now so that he may be revealed in his time. For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way." This verse has given rise to a ton of interpretations. For example, preterists will say it is the Roman empire and Pax Romana rooted in Roman Law, law that held back Nero until his mother murdered the previous Emperor and Nero was placed on the throne. Others say the Jewish state is the restraining power. Some say it is Satan who is restraining his protégé until just the right time. Others say it is an angel. Many say it is the Holy Spirit who restrains. Still others will say it is the proclamation of the gospel.¹⁸

How can you get things as different as a "thing" like Roman law and a Person like the Holy Spirit or Satan or an angel? It has to do with a very strange point of grammar. The word "restrain" is found twice, once in vs. 6 and once in vs. 7. The ESV correctly translates the first as "what is restraining" and the second as "he who now restrains." The first word is the neuter word katechon. The second is the masculine word katechon. There is no textual difficulty here. Paul meant to write exactly what he wrote. One does not accidently write an 0 (omicron) when he meant to write a ω (omega). This is not a slip of the pen. Somehow there is a "what" that restrains and a "who" that restrains it. According to the grammar, there are two restrainers, not one.

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 27 All Rights Reserved

¹⁸ See G. K. Beale, 1–2 Thessalonians, The IVP New Testament Commentary Series (Downers Grove, IL: InterVarsity Press, 2003), 214-16; George Milligan, ed., St. Paul's Epistles to the Thessalonians, Classic Commentaries on the Greek New Testament (London: Macmillan and Co., ltd, 1908), 166-73.

This has been seen by many people. What no one seems to have been looking for or able to find, until Roger Aus did his dissertation on this subject, is whether or not there could be some OT counterpart to this. It is at this point that I want to return to all that work we did last time with Isaiah 66.

In Isaiah 66 LXX, we have direct linguistic connections to 2Th 1:6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12, 2:4, 6-7, and 8. Because there are so many overlaps, it is certain that Paul has this passage in his mind as he writes both chapters. The key here is that the word "restrainer" is found in Isaiah 66:9. The ESV reads, "Shall I, who cause to bring forth, shut the womb?' says your God?" The word "shut" means literally "to restrain." The full verse gives the context. "Do I bring a baby to the birth opening and then not deliver it?' asks the LORD. 'Or do I bring a baby to the point of delivery and then restrain the womb?" asks your God?

This "birth" refers to the birth of Jesus, the Messiah. The Jews were interpreting this messianically even before the writing of the NT. So Paul sees in this verse God saying that he will not restrain a birth when it is time to come. That is, God is the object of the restraining.

However, in the passage, Isaiah has just been talking about the retribution that God is going to meet out against the Jews for their identical treatment of God's people that Paul and the Thessalonians are now facing. This is one of the main reasons why Paul is so drawn to this text. But as this birth is announced, it is precisely this judgment that is restrained by this birth! The birth of Messiah puts the retribution on hold.

In the passage, it then begins to speak about the nations. God is to enter into judgment not just with the Jews, but with "all flesh" (Isa 66:16). He is going to slay many people. However, in the meantime, he is going to set a sign among them that when they see his glory in judgment, they will know that he is God. This sign will be the salvation of many Gentiles, peoples who go back to the very Table of Nations in Genesis 10. This is a prediction of the gospel going out to the Gentiles, and Paul sees himself and these Thessalonians as a chief part of its fulfillment.

These Gentiles will, over the course of time, win back God's elect Jews from all the nations and, serving as God's Levitical priests in the new covenant temple, they will bring them as an offering to the LORD. This is part of a new covenant which is symbolized as a new heavens and new earth, along with continuing worship when, finally, "all flesh" shall worship before God. But when they leave, they will see the dead bodies of the men who have rebelled against Him. The restraint is over.

What this means is that there is something else restraining judgment in Isaiah 66. It is not a "who" but a "what." That "what" is the fullness of the mission of God's elect to take the gospel to all peoples. This is something that we actually see in Jesus' Olivet Discourse as well. Jesus says, "And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come" (Matt 24:14). So it makes sense that this would also be in 2 Thessalonians.

It is at this point that it would be very easy for me to become a total preterist as far as it concerns 2 Thessalonians 2. You've already heard me tell you about all the connections to 70 A.D. that are here. This makes one more when you understand the broader point of Paul's mission.

Let me take a moment to tell you about this relationship of the names from the Table of Nations and Paul's mission. In Genesis 10, God punished the whole world, dividing them up into 70 nations. These nations were then given over to total darkness and the worship of the gods (the seventy sons of God). But something happened at Pentecost, something that is signaled in Isaiah 66 when it says that God will © Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 30 All Rights Reserved send them to the nations (Isa 66:19). Acts 2 with its tongues and people hearing their own language even though those speaking were talking a different one is, essentially, the beginning of the reversal of curse of Babel.

What this meant for the Apostle Paul, according to prophecies like Isaiah 66, is that the gospel must go out to the seventy nations. The book of Acts is more than just an historical record of missionary journeys. It is a careful, deliberate explanation of how the Gospel was going to those nations.¹⁹ At the end of Romans, Paul makes this curious comment about how he had to get to Spain to preach the Gospel (Rom 15:24, 28). Why Spain? It is because Spain is where the fabled port of Tarshish was located, and it represented the last of the seventy nations (Gen 10:4), being that it was the farthest away.

Church tradition tells us that Paul made it to Spain before he was killed prior to the destruction of the Temple. Thus, Jesus' prediction that the Gospel had to go to all the nations was in fact fulfilled in one sense before 70 A.D. This is why Isaiah 66 can be such a powerful help to the preterist "2 Thess 2-is-already-fulfilled" position.

¹⁹ See Heiser, Unseen Realm, p..

[©] Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 31 All Rights Reserved

The thing is, nothing in the Bible ever tells us that Paul made it to Spain. I do not think this is accidental. The reason is because our missionary journeys do not end with Paul reaching Spain. It isn't like that was literally the farthest outpost of human civilization needing to hear the gospel. Not even close. From the known world perspective, perhaps it was, though they clearly knew about places like the British Isles that were not yet reached.²⁰ But from the reality of North and South America, most of Africa, Asia, Australia, countless ocean-islands, and even much of Europe, many people groups had still never heard anything. There are still many 2,000 years later that haven't. It is for this reason that I believe God, again in his providence, did not have Luke record anything of Spain. It leaves the whole task "openended," as it should be, until Jesus finally returns.

What this means is that because of the Isaiah 66 connection, the thing restraining the revealing of the man of lawlessness is the need for the gospel to go throughout the entire world. I'm not sure entirely what that means, but God knows. And I'm pretty sure it hasn't happened yet. Some ²⁰ Kind of. Thomas went to India and this supports the idea that more than the 70 nations were important.

Christians are planning to make it happen with the same fervor as some Jews are planning on rebuilding a third temple, and to do with within our lifetime. We'll see. When God sees this all as finished, I believe our passages is saying that God will finally take the restraints off and the man of lawlessness will be revealed. Then the end will come.

Until then, the "mystery of lawlessness" (2Th 2:7), yet another confusing thing in this passage, continues. It seems probable to me that this mystery of lawlessness is something akin to Genesis 15:16 where God has a measure of iniquity that he puts up with, but once it is complete, judgment sweeps down from heaven. In revelation, it is "Babylon" who is called a "mystery." In Paul's day, it was Rome. Throughout history, it has been different empires and nations. Many people think of Russia and many others think of the United States in this way. The point is, lawlessness will continue to be the way of it and it is a mystery why God does not put a stop to it. Until, you realize that he is restraining his hand of judgment for the sake of the elect, that they might all come to Jesus before the end.

What will this end look like? Terrifying. It says, "The Coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan" (2Th 2:9). Notice that he has a "coming" too. He mimics Christ.

Satan is the one behind this, because it is an attempt to usurp God's throne.²¹ Satan will come with all power and false signs and wonders (9b). This is somehow an attempt to mimic God as we see in other books like Revelation. Usually, those signs and wonders try to duplicate the Exodus miracles. But as even Moses saw, those only go so far. Nevertheless, these are powerful, supernatural activities and they are from Satan.

This supernatural activity then moves to the next phase. He speaks of "those who are perishing." This comes to "with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved" (2Th 2:10). Finally, we have something that is not difficult to try to understand. Note here that the blame is put solely upon them. They are deceived because they refused to love the truth and so be saved. People talk about God damning people to hell unfairly. Yet again, Scripture teaches us that people are given over to what they want. God hands them over to Satan to be deceived because they hated the truth and did not want to be saved!

²¹ I should probably note here something about the "temple" mentioned in vs. 4. Amillennialists like Riddlebarger and Beale see "temple" language entirely through NT or new covenant lenses. Thus, the entire passage has to be about a man raising from within the ranks of the church itself, for the church is the temple of God. The Ezekiel 28 connection makes this interpretation less likely, but still possible. Whether he be someone who feigns to be a Christian at first, or someone like Nero who only and always hated Jesus Christ, I'm just not sure we can know the answer to this question.

"Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness" (11-12). The most terrifying thing of all this is that people will be right in the middle of it and not realize it. Because they have been given over to evil. God is letting Satan have his way with them in order that they may not be saved. What a terrifying thing when God lets you do exactly what you want to do.

And yet, lest we forget something we saw last week, and I will mention here as we close, it is the Apostle Paul here that we are talking about who penned these words. This Apostle was himself on his way to kill Christians. He thought he loved the truth, but he was there applauding the Jews as they stoned Stephen for preaching Christ. Yet, God saved him.

Thus, until the time that this man of lawlessness is revealed, this delusion is not irreversible. But this is only true in as much as the gospel continue to go out. For it is only the gospel that is the power of God to save a soul. It is the gospel that, I believe, restrains Satan! For with it he does not have the power to deceive the nations (Rev 20:3), until the time of his releasing draws nigh. Then, all bets are off.

Therefore, here the word of the LORD this day. God is a supreme Judge who is going to punish your rebellion and sin. Make no mistake about it. Nothing can restrain his hand. Except his own oath.

That oath was to send his Son Jesus to this earth as a baby, as a man. This man grew and obeyed God in all things. For his obedience, his own people put him to death, and they were punished as a nation for it. This punishment was a type of the punishment that is coming upon the whole world for their rejection of the same Messiah. But you, now, are here listening to God's word. This Jesus, while killed, was raised to life and was seen by many witnesses. This Jesus ascended to heaven before the eyes of many. And he promised that one day he would return to take the fullness of the throne that is rightfully his as the King of kings.

This Jesus now offers you life and salvation and forgiveness of all your sins. This Jesus will clothe you in his righteousness if you repent and turn to him. This Jesus will cover all of your sins committed yesterday, today, and tomorrow as long as you call him Lord, fight the good fight, and finish the race. God will ensure that his elect come. It is your job to make that calling and election sure by not forsaking him even though you sin, but by living a life of repentance and faith and ever-increasing obedience before he, as he promised, comes again to judge the living and the dead. Even so, come quickly Lord Jesus.

Bibliography

Augustine, City of God 20.19.2.

Aus, Roger D. "Comfort in Judgment: The Use of the Day of the LORD and Theophany Traditions in Second Thessalonians 1." A Dissertation to Yale University, Yale University: 1971.

___. "The Relevance of Isaiah 66:7 to Revelation 12 and 2 Thessalonians 1." ZNW (Zeitschrift für die neutestamentliche Wissenschaft) 67 (1976): 252-68.

- Beale, G. K. 1-2 Thessalonians. The IVP New Testament Commentary Series. Downers Grove, IL: InterVarsity Press, 2003.
- Bruce, F. F. New Testament History. Garden City, N.Y.: Anchor, 1969.
- Desmond Ford, "The Abomination of Desolation in Biblical Eschatology." A Thesis Presented to the University of Manchester (July 1972).
- France, R. T. The Gospel of Matthew. The New International Commentary on the New Testament. Grand Rapids, MI: Wm. B. Eerdmans Publication Co., 2007.
- Gentry, Kenneth L. Jr. "The Man of Lawlessness: A Preteristic Postmillennial Interpretation of 2 Thessalonians 2" Covenant Media Foundation, http://www.cmfnow.com/articles/pt550.htm.
- Heiser, Michael S. "Naked Bible Podcast Transcript Episode 224: The Falling Away and the Restrainer." Naked Bible Podcast (July 14, 2018), http://www.nakedbiblepodcast.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/07/NB-224-Transcript.pdf.
- Holmes, Michael. 1 and 2 Thessalonians. The NIV Application Commentary. Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan Publishing House, 1998.
- Jambrek, Stanko. "The Teaching of Christ and the Antichrist in the Thought of Mattias Flacius Illyricus." KAIROS Evangelical Journal of Theology IX:2 (2015): 221-40. https://www.academia.edu/23272406/The_teach- ing_of_Christ_and_the_Antichrist_in_the_thought_of_Matthias_Flacius_Illyricus.
- LaRondelle, Hans K. "Paul's Prophetic Outline in 2 Thessalonians 2." Andrews University Seminary Studies 21:1 (Spring 1983): 61-69. https://www.andrews.edu/library/car/cardigital/Periodicals/AUSS/1983-1/1983-1-04.pdf.
- Milligan, George (ed). St. Paul's Epistles to the Thessalonians, Classic Commentaries on the Greek New Testament. London: Macmillan and Co., ltd, 1908.
- Renihan, Jim. True Confessions: Baptist Documents in the Reformed Family. Owensboro, KY: RBAP, 2004.

Rigaux, Béda Saint Paul: Les Épitres aux Thessaloniciens. Études Bibliques. Paris: J. Gabalda, 1956.

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 37 All Rights Reserved

1.4 Since index Gad consider it just to repay with affliction hole who afflict yes. Is 6677 Targens: Her [mestanit] 1.27. When the Lord Jesus is revealed from heren Is 6677 Targens: Her [mestanit] Mit do enged to this night Is 6677 Targens: Her [mestanit] 1.38. In flaming fire Is 6677 Targens: Her [mestanit] 1.48. In flaming fire Is 6677 Targens: Her [mestanit] 1.59. Derival destruction P5 79[78] 6. Not know you 1.59. Derival destruction P5 79[78] 6. Not know you 1.59. Derival destruction P5 79[78] 6. Not know you 1.59. Derival destruction P5 79[78] 6. Not know you 1.59. Derival destruction P5 79[78] 6. Not know you 1.50. A flame of fire Is 662.28. For heir worm shill nor to is 51.51 Mestano third do not do not know God 1.59. Derival destruction P5 79[78] 6. Not know you 1.50. A flame of fire Is 662.28. For heir worm shill nor to is 51.51 Mestano third do nor to is 51.51	Verse and Phrase	lluded to in 2 Thessalonians 1 Definite Allusion	Probable Allusion	Possible Allusion repay with affliction those who afflict you. In the day from the face prevented of the first original terms of the form there are also the server of the face prevented of the face prevented of the server of the face prevented of the face prev		Definite Anasion	Trobable Antusion
yob. ² Obj 14:5 objects Obj 14:5 objects Obj 14:5 objects Objects Objects Objects Objects Objects Objects Objects Dis 2:1 objects Di
1.7. When the Lord Josus is revealed from haven 1a 667.7 Targun: Her [messanid king will be revealed. D 33.2. His angels with him. Zeb 145.7. The sints/holy ones] him. 1.8. In fluming free linking vergence show who do not obey. Ex. 32.1. In fluming free how first and observed. D 33.2. His angels with him. Zeb 145.7. The sints/holy ones] him. 1.8. In fluming free how first and detection Pr. 79[78]:6. Not know you Ex. 32.1. In fluming free how first and observed. D 33.2. His angels with him. Zeb 145.7. The sints/holy ones] him. 1.9. Extrad detection Pr. 79[78]:6. Not know you Is 66.24. Not first and observed. He 6:15. A flume of fire how first angels. 1.9. Georgenous on that day to be glorified in its sints, and to be mar- veled at Is 66.24. And they shall go and how how reveled angenous on that day to be glorified. He 2:10.19, 21. From the face of the face of the Locd, and from the glory of his might. 1.10. When he course on that day to be glorified in its sints, and to be mar- veled at Pr. 899/68.56. Gold is fortified in the coursel of the holy ones : 				Ob 14-15 to destroy in the day of afflic
17. When the Load Jesus is revealed from lawor Is 66.75 Targens: Her [nestant], May will be revealed. D2 33.2. His angels with him. Load. 18. In flaming fire Is 6.615. A flame of fire D2 33.2. His angels with him. Load. 18. In flaming fire Is 6.615. A flame of fire D2 33.2. His angels with him. Load. 19. Bernal destruction Readering Verseld. D2 33.2. His angels with him. Load. 19. Bernal destruction Readering Verseld. D2 33.2. His angels with him. Load. 19. Bernal destruction Readering Verseld. D2 33.2. His angels with him. Load. Away from the face (proopou) of the Load and from the glory of his might. Da 63.2. A data or key dual no obey De 10.2.5 Nations that do not key fire fire shall not ke guareshed, and they hall guare and hook on the dad bodies of the removed dual to the day of their desire of the fire of the Load and from the glory of his might. Da 66.24. And they hall guare and look on the dad bodies of the removed dual to the oby one and to be load to the oby one and to be load to be and body removes and look on the dad bodies of the removed dual to the oby one and to be load to be oby one and to be load to be oby one and to be load to be and body removes and load. Da 66.24. And they hall guare and load to be body one and to be load to be and body removes and load to the be load to be and body removes and load to the be load to be and the oby one and to be load to be and body removes and load to the be load to be and body removes and load to the be load to be and the be load to be and body removes and load to be body dual to be and the	, ,			tion your recompense shall be r from havern With the angels of his might king will be revealed. 662, 14, 15, 19, "might" of the Lod. Dr 33.2. His angels with him. Zoch 15, 19, "might" of the Lod. 1.8. In flaming fire body. is a finding vergeance these who do not body. Pr 79[78] 6. Not know you Ex 3.2. In flaming fire bas 6613 and 664. Rendering vengeance treeore prote they did not obey Is 6615. A flame of fire bas 6613 and 664. Rendering vengeance treeore prote they did not obey Is 6615. A flame of fire bas 6613 and 664. Rendering vengeance treeore prote they did not obey 1.9. Esteral destruction Is 662.246. For their worm hull not die, their firs hall not be quach, which do not lead and from the face (prospoul) of the fare of the Lod, and from the glory of his might. Is 662.246. For their worm hull not die, chair firs hall not be quach, and hey dull be an abborrence to all flesh Mate 10.15. The eternal de O(13) in the day of their dear word her of the Lod, and from the glory of his might. 1.10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his start, and to be mar- veled at Ps 89.97 (63.36. God in plorified in the council of the body ones: wonderful is God in his hody label. That the name of the Lod mark be glorified. Ps 89.17. Good/good pleasure 11.1 Good/good pleasure 11.1 Good/good pleasure 11.2 So that the mane of the Lod mark be glorified. Ps 89.17. Good/good pleasure involution of the start of the Lod mark be glorified. 1.11. Good/good pleasure 11.12 Good/good pleasure 11.12 Good/good pleasure 11.2 So that the mane of the Lod mark be glorified. Ps 89.17. Good/good pleasure involution of the start of the Lod mark be glorified. 2.2. Opposes Temple Copposes t				turned.
With the angels of his might 66-2, 14, 15, 19, "might" of the Lord. Description of Lord. Descrip
Lord Zech Hist: The simultyley one jhin. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence thore who do not bey. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence thore who do not bey. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence thore who do not bey. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence thore who do not bey. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence they did not obey. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence they did not obey. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence they did not obey. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence they did not obey. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence they did not obey. 13. In flaming fire Inflicting vergence they did not obey. 14. 66:24. And they hall googt and hey ball be an absorrance to all they did googt and hey ball go
1.3. In flaming free Its. 3.2. In flaming free Its. 6.613 and 66.4. Inflicting vergeance those who do not obey. Pr. 79[78]:6. Not know you Its 6.613 and 66.4. Rendering vergeance they did not obey Jer 10.25. Nations that do not k is 35:15. Nations which do not det, their firs shall not be quenched, and they shall be an abborrace to all field. Jer 10.25. Nations that do not k is 35:15. Nations which do not det, their firs shall not be quenched, and they shall be an abborrace to all field. 1.4. Way from the face (protopool) of the Lord and from the glocy of his night. Its 2:10, 19, 21. From the face of the face of the face of the face of the Lord, and from the glocy of his night. Its 66:24t. And they shall groam and look on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead against me velock on the dash odds of the rem who have relead agains	With the angels of his might
13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding vengence those who do not obey. Fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is finding fire 13. Is first who do not know God Fir 79[78] 6. Not know you 13. Is first who do not know God 14. Is first who do not know God 13. Is first who do not know God Fir 79[78] 6. Not know you 13. Is first who do not know God 44. Is first which do not know God 13. Is first who do not know God Fir 79[78] 6. Not know you 13. Is first who do not know God 44. Is first which do not know God 13. Is first who do not know God Fir 79[78] 6. Not know you 14. Is first which do not be first worm shill not do not know God 14. Is first who do not know God First With God Son first first worm shill not do not be first worm shill for the council of the boy God Son first first worm shill be an bole of prodicing first work work work which do not first work work work work work work work work			Lord.
Indicing vengence those who do not obey. Rendering vengence recomposed by the day of their descent and the day of	1:8. In flaming fire		Ex. 3:2. In flaming fire obey. pence			Isa 66:15 and 66:4.
Those who do not know God Ps 79[78]:6. Not know you Jer 10:25. Nations which do not k 1:9. Eternal destruction Ja 66:24b. For their worm shall earlie the earlie do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not k in the day of their destruction is the do not the day of their destruction is the do not do not day. 1:10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in the source of a glorified in the same of the load on the deal bodies of the mare who have revelled a simulation. Ps 89:2; 68:36. God is glorified in the comes wonderful is God in his hold processors in the day of their destruction. 1:2. On that day. Is 66:5. That the name of the Load mark is made of the Load mark is mark in the source day. Ps 89:2; 25 and of transgression (the energy shall have no advattage game in thm shall no that mark is a mersial in Petip R. 36:1. 2: Opposes Tangle Ps 89:2; 5: 0; 17. King of Tangle advattage game is than shall no there the mark in the result of the load provemption day. 2: Opposes Tangle Ps 89:2; 6: 0; 17. King of Tangle advattage game is than shall no the mark in the result of the load provemption day. 2: Opposes Tangle Tangle advattage advattage game is than shall no the load on the load bow or the cod grad bave very game for the l
1.9. Eternal destruction Is 66:24b. For their worm shall not dequanched, and they shall be an abhorence to all de, theri fire shall not be quanched, and they shall be an abhorence to all hesh Max 2:10, 19, 21. From the face of the load, and from the glory of his might. Is 66:24b. For their worm shall not dequanched, and they shall be an abhorence to all hesh Ob 13: in the day of their destruction of the above the glory of his might. 1:10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be mareveled at Is 66:24b. And they shall go out and look on the deab odies of the men who have rebelled against me. Is 86:24a. And they shall go out and look on the day of their destruction of the host ones wonderful is God in his holy [place]. 0 n that day. Is 86:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Is 86:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 1:11. Good/Good pleasure Is 86:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Ps 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:12. So that the name may be glorified. Ps 69:22. Son of trangression (the cont yeak hall not hart him where hall not here hall no	obey.		pense they did not obey
1.9. Eternal destruction In the face (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the face (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the face (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the face (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the face (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the face (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the face (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the face (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of the local balance (prospon) of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of the local balance (prospon) of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of his holy prospon) of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of his holy prospon) of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of his holy prospon) of his holy prospon (prospon) of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of his holy prospon) of his holy prospon (prospon) of his might. In the local balance (prospon) of his holy prospon) of his holy prospon (prospon) of his his holy prospon (prospon) of his his holy prospon (prospon) of his holy prospon (prospon) of his his halo holy holy his halo holy h	Those who do not know God	Ps 79[78]:6 Not know you		ler 10.25 Nations that do not know you
Away from the face (protopou) of the Lord and from the glory of his might. Is 2:10, 19, 21, From the face of the of his might. Is 3:10, 19, 21, From the face of the set of his might. Is 66:24a. And they shall go the an abhorence to all flesh. Ch 13: in the day of their destru- and look on the data badie of the men- who have rebelled against me. Is 66:24a. And they shall go the men- who have rebelled against me. Is 66:24a. And they shall go the men- who have rebelled against me. Is a 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. On that day. Is a 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. Is a 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. Is a 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1:7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of field our jeuso Christ in yoo. Is a 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Is a 66:5. The the same of the Lord may be glorified. Is a 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple 2:1.1 Good/Good plessure Is 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Is 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Is 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple 2:3. The man of haviesmess a revealed, the som of predition/destruction (the energy shall have to advantage again thim shall not thar than where hain "messial in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Is 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple 2:4. Opposes Temple Dan 112:11. Burnt offering is the avay-removed-disappears. Is 66:3. The transme "strainaled by kated 115:6. Is associated with burl pre 62:4, and the day offer Lord 115:1. How has the enset with the face of a glos the Cool of glos theore the savay-removed-disappe				Isa 55:15. Nations which do not know yo
Away from the face (prospon) of the Lord and from the glory of his might. and they shall be an abhorence to all flesh and they shall be an abhorence to all flesh 11:0. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be mar- veled at 12:0.019, 21. From the face of the men who have rehelled against me. 12:0.029, 29:06336. Cod to glorified in the connect of the men who have rehelled against me. 0: On that day. 12:0.000 (10:0000 (10:0000 (10:000 (10:000 (10:000 (10:000 (10:000 (10:000 (10:00	1:9. Eternal destruction		Isa 66:24b. For their worm shall not	4Mac 10:15. The eternal destruction
Away from the face (prosopou) of the Lord and from the glory of his might. Is 2:10, 19, 21. From the face of the face of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. Is 2:10, 19, 21. From the face of the face of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. Is 6:6:24a. And they shall go out and look on the deab bodies of the men who have rehealed against me. 1:10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be mar- veled at Ps 89:9:6:8:36c. God is glorified in the council of the holy ones wonderful is God in his holy [places]. On that day. Is a 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1.7.10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do not obsey. First Jew, scond Gentile2 Is a 6:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 1:11. Good/Cood pleasure Is 6:6.5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Ps 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:12. So that the name may be glori- fied: our Jeus Christ in you. Ps 89:22. Son of transgression (the energy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesig. R. 30/1. Is 6:6:6. Opponents/enemies Temple 2:4. Opposes Temple Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken avay-removed-dispepar. Is 6:6:7. That we advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesig. R. 30/1. Is 6:6:7. Opponents/enemies Temple 2:4. Opposes Temple Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken avay-removed-dispepar. Is 6:6:7. That we advo return the way. Is 6:6:7. The way advo return the way. 2:7. Ural (the gettraing) is taken out of			die, their fire shall not be quenched,	Ob 13: in the day of their destruction
Avey from the face (prosopou) of the Lord and from the glory of his might. Is 2:10, 19, 21. From the face of the fac of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. Is 2:10, 19, 21. From the face of the face of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. Is 66:24a. And they shall go out and look on the deal bodies of the men who have rebelled against me. 1:10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be mar- veled at P. 89:9:6:63:56a. God is glorified in the council of the holy ones wonderfail is God in his holy [places]. Is 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1:7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do not obey. First Jew, second Genules? Is 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Is 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1:1.1. Good/Good pleasure Is 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. P. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:1.2. So that the name may be glori fiel: our jeus (Lints in you. gainst him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. P. 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have endy and gainst him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Is 66:6. Opponents/sentise God on dot of workhip His sext in the temple of God, displaying himself above every god the God of gods Is 66:7. There also restrinte "training training" (katechon, maculine) 2:7. Unal (the restraining) is taken out (the way. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappear. Is 66:3. The transgressor who an ox. 2:8. The lawless one (unomot) Is a 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth and detroy him by his appearing and coming Is a 11:4. He shall mite the e
Lord and from the glory of his might. Is 2:10, 19, 21. From the face of the glory of his might. Is 2:10, 19, 21. From the face of the glory of his might. 1:10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at some should against me. P: 89:9; 68:35a, God is glorified in the count of the holy ones wonderful is God in his holy [place]. On that day. Is a 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. Is a 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1.7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do no bey. First Jew, scool denotes in the name of the Lord method by the set of the many be glorified. Is a 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1:11. Good/Good pleasure Is 6:6.7. That the name of the Lord method by P: 89:22. Son of transgression (the son of perdition/destruction where shall have advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq, R. 36/1. P: 89:22. Son of transgression (the son of perdition/destruction where shall have advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq, R. 36/1. Is a 66:6. Opponents/enemise Temple Oci, 0:13:5. It, is associated with him energy hall have advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq, R. 36/1. Is a 66:6. Opponents/enemise Temple Do Oci, 0:13:5. It, is associated with him energy hall have advantage against them where him = messiah in Pesiq, R. 36/1. Is a 66:7. The weakso restrained is transduced by kate of the cod of god the God of god the way. 2:4. Opposes Temple Do Oci, 0:13:05. That the name of the Lord mode was the way. (what is returning? (katechon, neutral) where him = messiah in Pesiq, R. 36/1. Is a 66:7. The was hos re	A construction of the formation of the		flesh intervent fact of the Lord, and from the glory of his might. Image: Constraint of the local model is a first of the local model is a first mem who have robelled against me. 1:10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at Ps 89.9; 68.36a. God is glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at On that day. is a constraint of the local model is gloried in his saints, and to be marveled at Image: Ps 89.9; 68.36a. God is glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at I.7-10. Judgment upon the cnemics of Genutles? is a constraint of the local model is glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at Image: Ps 89.9; 7; 68.36a. God is glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at 1.7-10. Judgment upon the cnemics of Genutles? Image: Ps 89.9; 7; 68.36a. God is glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at Image: Ps 89.9; 7; 68.36a. God is glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at 1.12. So that the name may be glorified in the same of the Lord field or types. So that the name may be glorified in the son of perdition/detruction Image: Ps 89.2; 2. Son of transgression (the son of perdition/detruction may be glorified in his solid is a solid to the solid biose overy god or object of workip Ps 89.2; 2. Son of transgression (the son of perdition/detruction detruction and the son of perdition/detruction and the mark of his flore over glorified an the son of perdition/detruction Image: Ps 89.9; 7; 7; 6; 7; 7; 7; 7; 7; 7; 7; 7; 7; 7; 7; 7; 7;		Isa 2.10 19 21 Erom the face of the
of his might. Isa 66:24. And they shall go out and look on the dead bodies of the men who have refueld against me. 1:10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at wonderful is God in his holy places]. Ps 89:9; 68:36a. God is glorified in his holy places]. On that day. Isa 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. Isa 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1:7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do not obey. First Jew, second Gentles? Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 1:12. So that he name may be glorified. Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Ps 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:12. So that an of lawlessness is revealed the son of perdition/destruction may be glorified. Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Isa 66:5. Opponents/enemies 2:3. The man of lawlessness is revealed the son of perdition/destruction may be glorified. Isa 66:5. Opponents/enemies Temple 2:4. Opposes Temple Isa 66:5. Opponents/enemies Temple Optoses in temple of God, displaying limitely as their bim = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:7. Opponents/enemies Temple 2:7. Until (the restrainer) (kate-don, neuter) who now restraineg (kate-don, maxculine) Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken out of the way. Isa 66:5. The tamsgresson with away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:7. Wo cause to bring for way-removed-disappears. 2:7. Until (the restrainer) (kate-don, neuter) who now restraine (kate-don, maxculine) Isa 66:7. The way cause the thid	Lord and from the glory of his hight.	, , look on the deal bodie of the men who have rebuild against me. look on the deal bodie of the men who have rebuild against me. 1:10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be mar- veled at Ps 89:9; 68:36a. God is glorified in the concil of the holy ones wonderful is God in his holy [places]. On that day. Isa 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1:7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do no toely. First Jew, second Gentles? Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 1:11. Good/Good pleasure Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 2:3 The man of lawlessness is revealed the son of perdition/destruction Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 2:3 The man of lawlessness is revealed the son of perdition/destruction Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 2:4. Opposes Temple Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple 2:4. Opposes Temple Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies/ restrainely is main shall how the noin where him = messiah in Pesig. R. 36/1. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies/ Temple 2:7. Until (the restrainer)" (katechon, neuter) who now restrainers (kate- chown, maxculine) Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:7. What is restrained is translated by kated is 11:3-16, is actived with bitt if 6:24, and the day of the Lord is 11:3-16, is actived with with de word. Isa 11:4. He shall matte the earth with the word. 2:7. Until (the restrainer)" is taken out of the way. Isa 11:4. He shall matte t who have rebelled against me. 110. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his sains, and to be mar- veled at Ps 89:168:36a. God is glorified in the council of the holy ones wonderful is God in his holy [places]. On that day. Isa 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1.7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do not obey. First Jew, second Gendie? Isaih 66.18:21, 23. All flesh. Ta Lod, Tubal, Javan, costalnds. 1.11. Good/Good pleasure Isa 66.5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1.2.3. Oth the name may be glori field: on Jeus Christ in you against him shall not hur him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Tomple 2.4. Opposes Ps 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hur him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Tomple Opposes and exalts himself against every god or object of working Hinself as being God. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Tomple 2.4. Opposes Isa 66:7. That we also restraine "restrained" is tare in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. Isa 66:7. The value certaine "restrained" is tare in the temple of god heart of teas is a coll of working Hinself as being God. Isa 66:7. The value certaine "restrained" is translated by kace the way. 2.7. Urtil (the restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, maculine) Isa 66:7. The value certained this the strain the teast of whis bring for the way. Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox. 2.8. The Lawless o		5	Isa 66:24a. And they shall go out and
1:10. When he comes on that day to be glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at glorified. Pk 89:9; 68:36a. Gol 8glorified in the council of the holy ones wonderful is God in his holy [places]. On that day. Isaih 66.18-21, 23. All flesh. Tar Lod, Tubbal, Javan, coastlands. Gentles? Isaih 66.18-21, 23. All flesh. Tar Lod, Tubbal, Javan, coastlands. 1:11. Good/Good plessure Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 1:12. So that the name may be glorified. Ps 89:22. Son of transgression (the enery shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. 2:4. Opposes Ps 89:22. Son of transgression (the enery object of worship glori object of worship glori object of worship glori object of worship as being God. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enenies Temple Dan 11:36. He shall east himself against every god the sate in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. Isa 66:7. That was a restraining (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate-chown, maculine) 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way.? Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken in the restrainer of sate in the target of god hart of sate in the temple of rowship as a work with the breach of his mouth, and with the breach of his mouth and destroy the word of his mouth, and with the breach of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11.4. He shall mite the cart with the breach of his head of the lactory the ungody one. (Messiah destroy ring the <td></td> <td></td> <td>look on the dead bodies of the men</td> <td></td>			look on the dead bodies of the men glorified in his saints, and to be marveled at the council of the holy ones wonderful is God in his holy On that day. wonderful is God in his holy wonderful is God in his holy 1.7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do not obey. First Jew, second Gentles? wonderful is God in his holy 1.17-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do not obey. First Jew, second Gentles? wonderful is God. wonderful is God in his holy 1.11. Good/Good pleasure wonderful is God. wonderful is God. wonderful is God. wonderful is God. 1.12. So that the name may be glorified. wonderful is God. wonderful is God. wonderful is God. wonderful is God. 2.3. The man of lawlessness is revealed. Ps. 89:2.2. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage agod or object of worship methin = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. wonderful is God. wonderful if hims. wonderful if hims. Opposes and exalts himself against every god this exat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. wonderful is faster. wonderful is faster. wonderful if fulling fabore every god the God gods 2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, nacultine) wonderful is removed of "out of the way." wonderful is faster. wonderful is faster. wonderful is fastere. 2:6-7. Tuhut (the restraini			  veled at wonderful is God in his holy [places]. On that day. Is 3 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1.7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do no bey. First Jew, second Gentles? Is 4 2:11. (17, 20). On that day. 1:11. God/Good pleasure Is 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Pt. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:12. So that the name may be glori- fied: our jeus Christ in you. Is 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Pt. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 2:3. The may to flavelsenses is revealed, the son of perdition/destruction Is 66:5. That the name of but hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Is 66:6. Opponents/emenies Temple Opposes Temple Sense of God, displaying himself as being God. Is 66:6. Opponents/emenies Temple Opposes and calls himself against every god or object of worship Is a 66:7. "I have also restraing" (katechon, neuter) who now restraing: (katechon, neuter) who now restraing: (katechon, neuter) who now restraing: (katechon, neuter) who now restraing: is taken and the sati the temple of God, displaying himself a being God. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Is a 66:7. "I have also restraine trained is translated by kated 13:15-16, is associated with bird per 6:24, and the day of the Lord in the way. (what is removed or "out of the way"? The mystery of audesness, anomai, de5:5, thit is "our inquite". Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Is a 66:3. The transgressor who an ox. 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Is a 11:4. He shall mite the
On that day. Is 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1.7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do not obey. First Jew, second Gentiles? Is a 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1.11. Good/Good pleasure Is a 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Is a 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 2:3 The man of lawlessness is revealed, the enemies of God, displaying himself as being God. Ps 89:17. Good/good pleasure 2:4. Opposes Temple Ps 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall nave no advantage against him shall not turt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Is a 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Opposes and exalts himself against every god the set in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. Is a 66:7. "I have abe restraining" (katechon, neutry) is taken out of the way. Is a 66:7. "I have abe restrained is translated by katecle insection of divelation anomia, cfl as accurated with birth large for divelation of alwesness, anomia, cfl as 66:9. "who cause to bring for the way. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Is a 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the breath of his inps shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroy trop ungod) one. (Messiah de
On that day. Isa 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. 1.7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do no boey. First Jew, second Geniles? Isa 36:5.21, 23. All fields. Tar Lud, Tubal, Javan, coastlands. 2:11. Good/Good pleasure Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:12. So that the name may be glorified. Ps. 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Ps. 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. 2:4. Opposes Ps. 89:22. Son of transgression (the son of perdition/destruction Ps. 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Opposes and exalts himself against every god to object of worship His seat in the temple of God, displaying himself ab being God. Isa 66:7. Th ave also restrained "restrained" is translated by lated 13:15-16, is associated with birtl e 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken otway. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox. 2:8. The lawless one (anomos) Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities" Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.	veled at
1.7-10. Judgment upon the enemise of God who do not obey. First Jew, second Gentiles? Isa 2:11 (17, 20). On that day. Isaih 66.18-21, 23. All flebs. Tar Lud, Tubal, Javan, coastlands. 1:11. Good/Good pleasure Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 2:3 The man of lawlessness is recelled. the son of perdition/destruction Ps 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemise Temple Opposes Isa 66:1. Opponents/enemise Temple Isa 66:7. That we have a set as the sen of bed the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. Isa 66:7. That we also restring "restrained is translated by lated to God of gods. 2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine) Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:7. That we also restraing "restrained is translated by lated to God of gods. 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox. 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah la destroy			[places].
1.7-10. Judgment upon the enemies of God who do not obey. First Jew, second Centiles? Isaih 66.18-21, 23. All fleb. Tar Lud, Tubal, Javan, coastlands. 1:11. Good/Cood pleasure Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:12. So that the name may be glorified. Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 2:3 The man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of perdition/destruction Ps. 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:5. Opponents/enemies Temple 2:4. Opposes Temple Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Opposes and exalts himself against every god or object of worship Ps. 89:21. Con of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Opto colic of oworship Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken (the way. Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by kateet is 15:16. is associated with birt Jis 16:16, is associated with birt Jis 66:5. that is "our injutites" 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox. 2:8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his han out, and wit	On that day.
God who do not obey. First Jew, second Gentiles? Lud, Tubal, Javan, coastlands. 1:11. God/Good pleasure Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:2. So that the name may be glori- fied: our Jeux Christ in you. Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 2:3 The man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of perdition/destruction Ps. 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him, shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R, 36/1. Isa 66:5. Opponents/enemies Temple Opposes Temple Dan 11:36. He shall call binusel infy himself against every god or object of worship Isa 66:5. Opponents/enemies Temple Opposes and exalts himself against every god or object of worship Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katech chown, maculine) Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katech the way. 2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, maculine) Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katech womb" (dut: "restraine")." The H that just as incluctably as a won birthpang must bear her chid, so it tha God will restore Jerusalen then suckle and console her peo JBIJ 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the reword of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungedly one. (M Gemils? Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:11. Good/Good pleasure Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:12. So that the name may be glorified. may be glorified. fied: our Jesus Christ in you. Ps. 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies 2:4. Opposes Temple Opposes and exalts himself against every god the god or object of worship Isa 66:6. Against every god the God of gods Hisself as being God. Erek 28:2, 5.6, 9, 17. King of T. 66:19) seat of god heart of seas. 2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (katechown, masculine) Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken out of the way.? (what is removed or "out of the way"? Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken large substrains of substrainse, who most stars anomia, cf. Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities" Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities" 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his inps hall he destroy the ugody one. (Messiah destroy the lungodly
1:11. Good/Good pleasure Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure 1:12. So that the name may be glorified. Isa 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified. 1:23. The man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of perdition/destruction Ps 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. 2:4. Opposes Temple Opposes and exalts himself against every god or object of worship Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies His seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. Isa 66:7. The twelvest of god hard of seas. 2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (katechown, masculine) Isa 66:7. The twelvest or "out of the way."? 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:5. The transgressor who ain ox. 2:8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his hips hall he destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his hips hall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he				Lud, 1 ubai, Javan, coastiands.
1:12. So that the name may be glori- fied: our Jesus Christ in you.Is 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified.Is 66:5. That the name of the Lord may be glorified.2:3 The man of lawlessness is revealed the son of perdition/destructionPs 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage agains him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1.Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself abalt he temple of God, displaying himself ab set in the temple of God, displaying himself ab is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate chown, maculine)Isa 66:6. Who can be able to the set of god heart of seas.2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, maculine)Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears.Isa 66:5. "In the also restraine "restrained is translated by katechout due to the day of the Lord it that God will restore Jerusalem the mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. Is 66:5, that is "our iniquities"Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears.Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the were of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destr				Ps. 89:17. Good/good pleasure.
2:3 The man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of perdition/destruction Ps 89:22. Son of transgression (the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself against every god or object of worship His seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. 2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (katechown, masculine) Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken out of the way."? 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox. 2:8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mys hall he destroy in by mite appearing and coming Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.	1:12. So that the name may be glori-
the son of perdition/destruction(the enemy shall have no advantage against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1.Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself poses and exalts himself against every god or object of worship His seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God.Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself nify himself above every god the God of gods Ezek 28:2, 5, 6, 9, 17. King of T 66:19) seat of god heart of seas.2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine)Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained" is translated by katecid- away-removed-disappears.Isa 66:9. "who cause to bring fort womb' (but = restrain)." The H that just as ineluctably as a wor birthpang must bear her child, so it that God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peopleJBL)2.8. The lawless one (anomos)Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his mouth, and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his physhalh dedetroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroy ing her ungodly one. (Messiah destroy ing her the suckle and console her poor JBL)	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · against him shall not hurt him where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1.Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself against every god or object of worship His seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God.Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself and 11:36. He shall exalt himself against every god the God of gods Ezek 28:2, 5, 6, 9, 17. King of T 66:19) seat of gods Ezek 28:2, 5, 6, 9, 17. King of T 66:19) seat of god heart of seas.2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate chown, masculine)Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken out of the way.Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine restrained is translated by kated 13:15-16, is associated with bird Jer 62:4, and the day of the Lord 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way.Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears.Isa 66:9, "Who cause to bring fort womb" (shut = restrain). "The H that just as ineluctably as a won birthpang must bear her child, si that and woll will experime pic that as do will restore Jerusalen then suckle and console her peo JBL)2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he where him = messiah in Pesiq. R. 36/1.Isa 66:6, Opponents/enemies Temple Opposes and exalts himself against every god or object of worship His seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God.Isa 66:6, Opponents/enemies Temple Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself nify himself above every god the God of gods Ezek 28:2,2,5,6,9,17. King of Ty 66:19) seat of god heart of seas.2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine)Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katecl 13:15-16, is associated with bird Jer 6:19) seat of god heart of seas.2:6-7. Turtil (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. (what is removed or "out of the way"? The mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities"Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears.Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.2:8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying heIsa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.	the son of perdition/destruction
2:4. Opposes Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies Temple Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself Opposes and exalts himself against every Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself Bis seat in the temple of God, displaying Bis seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. Ezek 28:2, 5, 6, 9, 17. King of T 66:10) seat of god heart of seas. 66:6. Opponents/enemies 2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (katechow, masculine) Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies (what is removed or "out of the way"? The mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities" Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the start of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the word of his mouth and destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroy the ungodly one.		0
Opposes and exalts himself against every god or object of worship His seat in the temple of God, displaying himself a bove every god the God of gods Ezek 28:2, 5, 6, 9, 17. King of T 66:19) seat of god heart of seas.2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine)Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katechord 13:15-16, is associated with birdly Jet 64:19) seat of god heart of seas.2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine)Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katechord 13:15-16, is associated with birdly Jet 62:4, and the day of the Lord Isa 66:9. "who cause to bring fort" womb" (shut = restrain). "The H- that just as ineluctably as a word birthpangs must bear her child, so it it hat God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peor JBL)2.8. The lawless one (anomos)Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breach of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he	2:4. Opposes	1 · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		Isa 66:6. Opponents/enemies god or object of worship His seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God.nify himself above every god the God of gods Ezek 28:2, 5, 6, 9, 17. King of Tr 66:19) seat of god heart of seas.2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine)Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katech 13:15-16, is associated with birth Jer 6:24, and the day of the Lord 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. (what is removed or "out of the way"? The mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities"Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears.Isa 66:3. "In transgressor who an ox.2.8. The lawless one (anomos)Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breach of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying heIsa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.	Temple			Temple
His seat in the temple of God, displaying himself as being God. the God of gods Ezek 28:2, 5, 6, 9, 17. King of T 66:19) seat of god heart of seas. 2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine) Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katechord 13:15-16, is associated with birtl Jer 6:24, and the day of the Lord 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. (what is removed or "out of the way"? The mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities" Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:3. "who cause to bring fort womb" (shut = restrain). "The H that just as ineluctably as a word birthpangs must bear her child, si it that God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peor JBL) 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.				Dan 11:36. He shall exalt himself and mag himself as being God.Ezek 28:2, 5, 6, 9, 17. King of T 66:19) seat of god heart of seas.2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine)Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katech 13:15-16, is associated with birth Jer 6:24, and the day of the Lord2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. (what is removed or "out of the way"? The mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities"Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears.Isa 66:9. "who cause to bring fort womb" (shut = restrain). "The H that just as ineluctably as a won birthpangs must bear her child, si it that God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peop JBL)2.8. The lawless one (anomos)Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his inps shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroy the				nify himself above every god again
2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine)Isa 66:7. "I have also restrained "restrained is translated by kated 13:15-16, is associated with birth Jer 6:24, and the day of the Lord 13:66:9. "who cause to bring fort womb" (shut = restrain). "The Hu that just as ineluctably as a work birthpangs must bear her child, as a thet suckle and console her peog JBL)2.8. The lawless one (anomos)Lsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.				the God of gods
2:6-7. "what is restraining" (katechon, neuter) who now restraings (katechown, masculine) Isa 66:7. "I have also restraine "restrained is translated by katechown, masculine) 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:9. "who cause to bring fort womb" (shut = restrain). "The Hthat just as ineluctably as a worn birthpangs must bear her child, so it that goal and console her peop JBL) 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the breath of his mouth and destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroy the Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.	himself as being God.			0,1
neuter) who now restraings (kate- chown, masculine)"restrained is translated by kated 13:15-16, is associated with bird Jer 6:24, and the day of the Lord2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way.Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears.Isa 66:9. "who cause to bring fort womb" (shut = restrain). "The Hu that just as ineluctably as a won birthpangs must bear her child, so it that God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peop JBL)2.8. The lawless one (anomos)Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he	2:6-7 "what is restraining" (katechop chown, masculine) 13:15-16, is associated with birth 2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears. Isa 66:9, "who cause to bring fort womb" (shut = restrain). "The H, that just as ineluctably as a worn birthpangs must bear her child, so it that God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peop JBL) 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the breath of his mouth and generating and coming				"restrained is translated by katechein in Jo
Image: constraint of the boxJer 6:24, and the day of the Lord2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of the way. (what is removed or "out of the way"? The mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities"Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken away-removed-disappears.Isa 66:9. "who cause to bring fort womb" (shut = restrain). "The H that just as ineluctably as a won birthpangs must bear her child, so it that God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peop JBL)2.8. The lawless one (anomos)Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his inps shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroy ing her	,			13:15-16, is associated with birth woes in the way. away-removed-disappears. womb" (shut = restrain). "The Hu that just as ineluctably as a womb "birthpangs must bear her child, as a that God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peographic 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.	. ,			Jer 6:24, and the day of the Lord in Ps 48:
(what is removed or "out of the way"? The mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities"that just as ineluctably as a worn birthpangs must bear her child, so it that God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peop JBL)2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and comingIsa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying heIsa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.	2:7. Until (the restrainer) is taken out of		Dan 12:11. Burnt offering is taken	Isa 66:9. "who cause to bring forth, shut th
(what is removed or "out of the way"? The mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities"birthpangs must bear her child, so it that God will restore Jerusalem then suckle and console her peop JBL)2.8. The lawless one (anomos)Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying heIsa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox.	the way.		away-removed-disappears.	womb" (shut = restrain). "The Hebrew sa
The mystery of lawlessness, anomia, cf. it that God will restore Jerusalem Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities" it that God will restore Jerusalem 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with Say him with the breath of his mouth and Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he Isa 66:3. The transgressor	(1			that just as ineluctably as a woman in h
Isa 66:5, that is "our iniquities" then suckle and console her peop JBL) 2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with destroy him by his appearing and coming Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he				birthpangs must bear her child, so certain
2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Isa 66:3. The transgressor who an ox. Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Isa 11:4. He shall mite the earth with the breath of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he
2.8. The lawless one (anomos) Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming Say him with the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he	isa oo.o, mat is our iniquities
Say him with the breath of his mouth and destroy him by his appearing and coming	2.8. The lawless one (anomos)			Isa 66:3. The transgressor who slaughte destroy him by his appearing and coming the word of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he	. , breath of his lips shall he destroy the ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he ungodly one. (Messiah destroying he	destroy him by his appearing and coming		-
Chart based on the chart in David Roger Aus, "Comfort in Judgment: The Use of the Day of the LORD and Theophany Traditions in Second Thessalonians 1," A Dissertat	Chart based on the chart in David P oger Aug	"Comfort in Judgment: The Lice of the Day		Second These Jonians 1 " A Dissertation to

© Reformed Baptist Church of Northern Colorado and Pastor Doug Van Dorn 38 All Rights Reserved