"Gormanstown Choir have organised a fundraising concert in Kildare Cathedral on July 23. At 8 pm in aid of AHR (Atlantic Humanitarian Relief), which brings a team of international medics and Humanitarians along with much needed medical aid to Syrian refugees stranded in Jordanian camps.

Monies raised will go towards medicines/equipment/rental of surgeries etc. We have two members of the choir going in the next mission at the end of September next, Dorly O'Sullivan (Humanitarian) Dr Brendan O'Shea, his wife and son, (all three medical professionals).

Tickets can be bought through the eventbrite link. Going through the ticket link which will give a choice between buying a ticket or making a donation. "

Kind regards

Dorly
