

Eutychus

Falls From

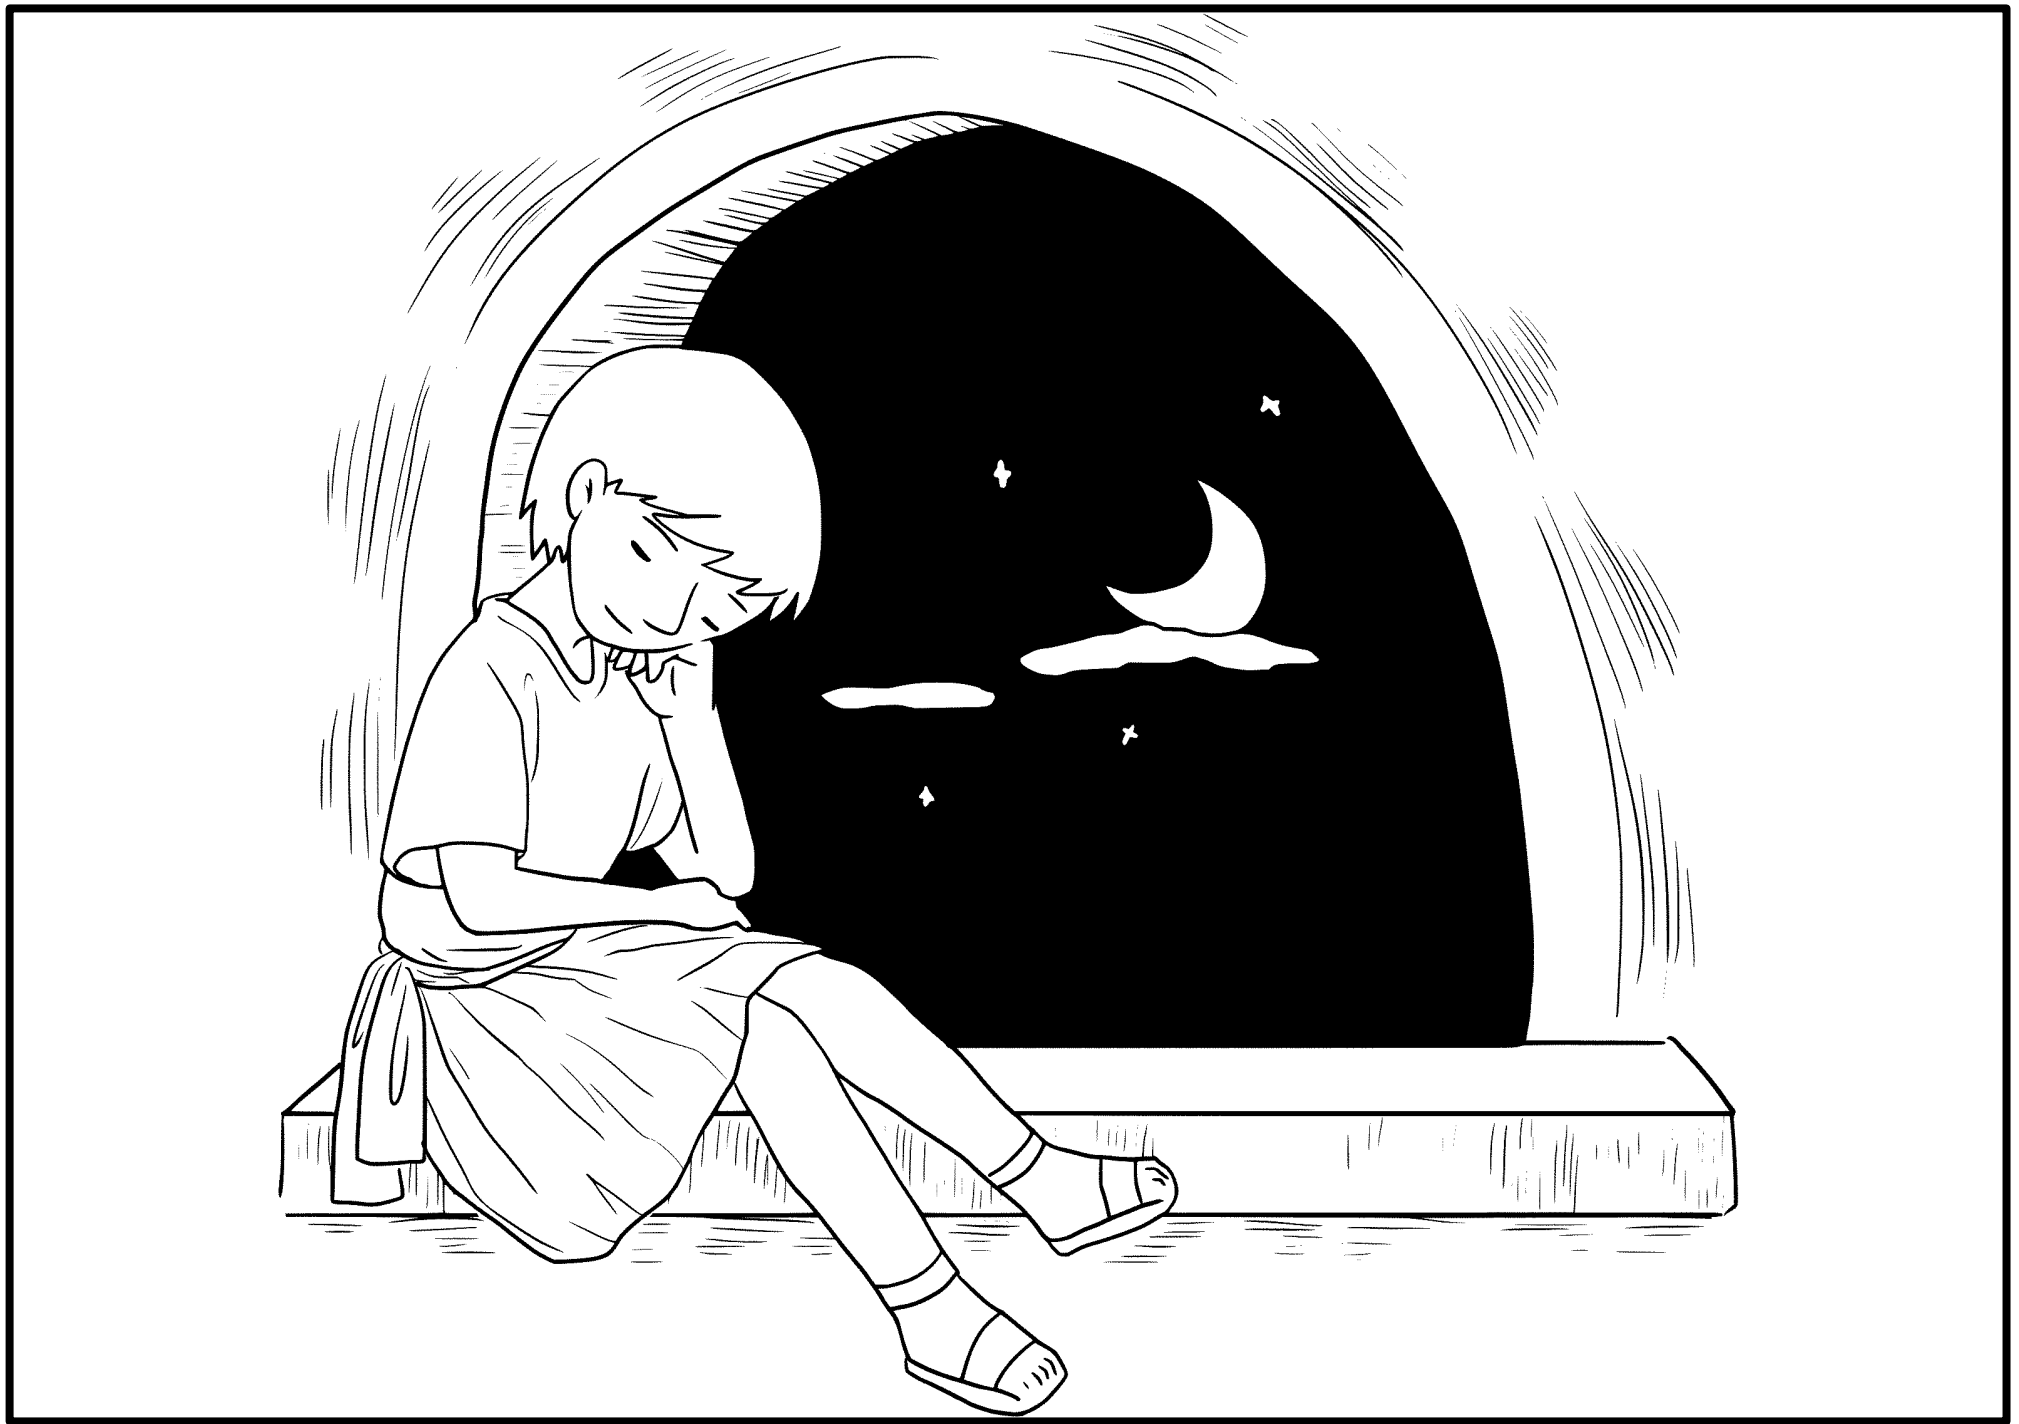

the

Window

And on one of the Sabbaths, the disciples having been assembled to have a fellowship meal together, being about to depart on the next morning, Paul reasoned to them. And he continued his speech until midnight – Acts 20:7

And a young man named Eutyclus was sitting in a window and listening. And while Paul prolonged his preaching, he sunk into a deep sleep – Acts 20:9a

...and, in his sleep, he fell from the third loft, and was taken up as dead – Acts 20:9b

And Paul went down, and bent over him and embraced him, and said: be not terrified, for his soul is still in him

Acts 20:10
