NEWS FOR AND ABOUT RESIDENTS OF ST. AUGUSTINE SHORES

“Shamrocks and Rainbows”

Misha Vlasov and Kim Taylor will perform two dances during the March 14th dance.

New association president Hal Sommer and new first lady Sara Sommer prepare to lead the Grand March at the January dance.

The Grand March, led by new president Hal Sommer and new first lady Sara Sommer, was the big highlight of the St. Augustine Ballroom Dance Association's January dance. Many members and guests participated in this dance celebration which has been an association tradition for the past 34 years.

Outgoing president Dennis Froio was presented with a plaque for his leadership last year. Karin Froio received flowers for her contributions as first lady of the association. "Shamrocks and Rainbows" is the theme for the March 14th dance at the Riverview Club in St. Augustine Shores. The dance starts at 7:30pm and ends at 11pm.

Entertainment chairperson, Hatsue Wright, has arranged for the return of ballroom dance instructor Misha Vlasov and his talented student Kim Taylor, who will perform two dances during the first break. Vlasov has competed in Pro-Am events with his students for more than 20 years. He also competes in the Professional American Rhythm division with his professional partner Vanda Polakova.

Taylor has a strong ballet background before taking up ballroom dancing a few years ago. Members and guests welcome her back for her forth performance for the association. The very popular Ray Mezo band will provide the dance music. Hors d'oeuvres, dessert and coffee will be served at the second break.

The dress code for guests is a dark business suit with tie for the men and a cocktail dress for the women. Members wear formal attire. First time guests pay just $10 and repeat guests pay just $15.

For an invitation, call association president Hal Sommer at 904-823-0719. For more information and pictures, visit facebook.com/SABDASTAug.

St. Augustine Orchestra's Winter Concert “What's In A Name”

The St Augustine Orchestra will present its winter concert entitled “What's in a Name”, Friday, March 13th. Under the direction of William McNeiland, the orchestra will perform orchestral pieces with unusual titles or composer names.

Some of the selected pieces have descriptive titles, such as Bach's "Brandenburg Concerto"; but who or what is a Brandenburg? "Crown Imperial" was written by British composer William Walton, but for whom and when? "On Hearing the First Cuckoo in Spring", based on a Norwegian folk song and written by Frederick Delius, was inspired by his brief stay at nearby Picolata Landing on the St. Johns River.

The Orchestra will play an excerpt from the opera "Hansel and Gretel", composed by Engelbert Humperdinck. "Sinfonia Concertante", written by a composer with the tongue-twisting name Karl Ditters von Dittersdorf, will also be performed. Is it a symphony or a concerto; or something else entirely? It does feature two solo instruments: the viola and double bass, which are instruments that rarely get a chance to play solos. Our soloists will be Heather Turvey, viola, and Dale Gosa, double bass. ## Mount of Praise begins.....

A Pastor has come Home!!! Pastor Bruce Cabbage, a St. Augustine native, has been a Pastor at several fellowships in Florida all the way up to West Virginia and has always had a dream to come back to his grass roots. With that passion and desire, Mount of Praise has come to St. Augustine. Pastor Bruce has over 40 years in ministry and has a deep desire for those who have not received Christ as their Lord and Savior. Pastor Bruce said this, "He that winneth souls is wise" taken from Proverbs 11:30.

Mount of Praise is a non-denominational church that believes the whole Bible and has a Pentecostal atmosphere! "We want the fullness and the power of the Holy Spirit to operate in every service, but let me be clear, I won't tolerate anything out of order!" With that in mind, Pastor Bruce believes it is vitally important to follow scripture and have sound doctrine that will keep the integrity of God's Word.

Joining Pastor Bruce and Angie Cabbage are Worship Leaders Mike and Joy Plant. They have led worship for several years and have a desire for people to experience the Presence of the Lord. Join Pastor Bruce and Angie Cabbage at the Riverview Club located at 790 Christina DR St. Augustine FL 32086. Church phone number is 904-316-7908.

News From Around St. Johns County

One of the Largest Beach Sunrise Services

On Easter Sunday morning, April 5th, thousands are once again expected on Crescent Beach at 7:00am for the annual, inspirational Sunrise Service. This annual gathering had its beginning at Crescent Beach Ramp over twenty years ago on the parking lot adjacent to Beacher's Lodge. The pastor, at that time was Armando Silverio, and there were 81 people present.

The attendance at the Sunrise Service has grown to more than 5,000. This years "gathering" with Dr. David Beauchamp, promises to be a remarkable sunrise service, just as the ones you've heard so much about.

You will once again see a giant cross silhouetted against the blaze of an Easter morning sky. You are encouraged to bring your whole family, your beach chairs and blankets. Arrive early in order to get a good space near the platform.

You'll hear beautiful music by soloist Jeff Varnadoe and the choir. You'll have an opportunity to join in the singing of the great crowd gathered on the sand. The music will lead right into an inspiring message of the resurrection by Dr. Beauchamp, followed by ocean baptisms. Parking attendants, assisted by the Sheriff Department, will help each car find a space on the beach or in nearby paved lots.

You are invited to come to the Crescent Beach Ramp at 7:00am Sunday, April 5th and experience one of the largest beach sunrise services. For more information call (904) 794-7777.

Needlework with Friends

Needlework with Friends, a program sponsored by Friends of the Main Library St. Augustine, meets at the Main Library from 1:30 - 3:30 p.m. on the first and third Monday of the month. ## Wild Flower Meadow Group

by Cindy Taylor

First, a special thanks to Andrew Centoducati for repairing the fence posts that had begun to rot after ten years. Sprucing up the border fencing improves the content of what's inside.

In February we began grooming the meadow in preparation for the spring flowers. We're looking forward to soon seeing spider warts, field sorrel, showy primrose, daisy fleabane, toad flax, and lyre leaf sage. Those are among the early blooms. For information and identification of the flowers, we have some printouts in a covered box on the fence nearest the clubhouse.

In February we went to Haw Creek Preserve in Flagler County for a walk on the boardwalk over the swamp, to view the creek from look outs, and had a picnic. We meet the first Saturday of each month at about 8:30 by the Riverview Club House and welcome newcomers. Our goal is to tend the wild flower meadow, learn about native plants, what grows in this location, and how to care for it. We want to share our knowledge, learn what others know, and occasionally visit state and county parks. We're an informal group without officers or dues and hope you will join us. Call Claire at 794-7473 for more information.

Uncle Eddie & Robin Appears at UU Fellowship Coffeehouse

"Uncle Eddie & Robin", a husband and wife musical duet, and new arrivals to St. Augustine Shores, are appearing at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of St. Augustine on Friday, March 20th, 2015, from 7-9PM for an evening of "BeachGrass", bringing the sound of the mountains to the beach.

Ed and Robin Mahonen have just moved to St. Augustine Shores from Wheeling, West Virginia, where they performed locally and regionally with their own eclectic blend of music, which incorporates classic folk, rock and bluegrass, and their own original songs.

Ed plays banjo and guitar, and was an icon on the Appalachian music scene for over 40 years, appearing in many bands, as well as being a member of the legendary Wheeling Jamboree. Robin is the daughter of Grammy nominated and world renowned jazz trombonist Jimmy Knepper. Together, they pride themselves on their stunning vocal harmonies, original songwriting, and unique arrangements of classic tunes with a plunk rock twist.

They have two original CD's to their credit, and are working on their third. They are delighted to be in St. Augustine, and look forward to meeting their new neighbors at this coffeehouse, and some of their future shows.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of St. Augustine is located at 2487 A1A South, St. Augustine, FL 32080. For more information, their phone number is: (904) 471- 2047.
