Cooperate with the Word of God

Many times when God gives us a Word, we get happy with it. But after a short while, that happiness fades away. We get distracted by things in the natural that contradict what the Word says. We wonder why God's Word is not coming to pass. We wonder if God is able. Some even wonder if God is real. Truth be told, many get angry at Him because they think He did not keep His Word.

Still, there are others - Christians who LOVE God and would NEVER accuse God of breaking a promise. Instead, they decide that it must not have been God's will or that the promise wasn't meant for them.

Saints, hear me. GOD'S WORD TO YOU IS HIS WILL FOR YOU. AND HE EXPECTS IT TO COME TO PASS IN YOUR LIFE. BUT He needs our cooperation.

How do we cooperate with God to bring His Word to pass in our lives? Two very important ways are 1) Expect God's Word to come to pass, and 2) Cooperate with God's Word.

EXPECT GOD'S WORD TO COME TO PASS

When we expect something, we create all the optimal conditions for that thing to come to pass. When we are expecting a phone call, we make sure our ringer is on, our signal is good, and that we are in place to receive the call. When we are expecting a Word from the Lord to manifest in our lives, we should create optimal conditions for it to come to pass. (Understand that God's Word does not need any help. It has enough power in Itself to bring Itself to pass. However, to those who do not mix faith with It, that Word will not profit them (Heb. 4:2).

1. Turn your ringer on.

Be ready to hear from the Lord at any moment. How? By staying in His Word (particularly the Word He gave you). Faith comes by hearing and HEARING BY THE WORD OF GOD (Rom. 10:17). Listening, heeding, and obeying the Word God has spoken to us develops our hearing and cultivates a caliber of hearing that is alerted anytime Holy Spirit speaks. Turn your ringer on.

2. Make sure your signal is good.

Don't allow things in this natural world to cause interference that disrupts your ability to connect with God. Set your minds and keep them set on what is above (the higher things), not on the things that are on the earth (Col. 3:2, AMPC). Whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things (Phil. 4:8). Make sure your signal is good.

3. Be in place to receive the call.

Clear all other hindrances, disturbances, AND resistances (yes, I made up a word), so when God calls, you will answer. So when He gives you instructions, you will obey. So when He leads and guides you, you will follow Him. Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts (Heb. 3:15, ESV). Be in place to receive the call.

COOPERATE WITH THE WORD

Now that we have created the optimal conditions for the Word to come to pass in our lives, we must do our part by cooperating with It. To not cooperate with the Word is to frustrate the grace of God (see Gal. 2:20-21).

1. Cooperate with the Word.

Read, meditate, believe, and confess the scriptures you are standing on. It is important to get the Word in your heart to create the image of what you are believing for on the inside of you. If you only have it in your mind, it will be short-lived, and you will not see the results (Matt. 13:3, 5-6, 20-21). If you don't meditate it at all, the enemy will steal the Word immediately, and it won't produce (Matt. 13:3-4, 19). As you meditate the Word and let it take root in your heart, it will produce a harvest in your life (i.e., it will manifest) (Matt. 13:3, 8, 23). (To read more about receiving the manifestation of the Word, request my eBook, "Seven Principles for Receiving the Promises of God.")

The more you meditate the scriptures, the more you will believe them. When you believe them, you will speak them in faith, and they will come to pass.

2. Give God's Word first place.

Choose to stand on God's Word and God's Word alone. Don't be moved by what you see or what you feel. Continue to speak the Word that God has given you - even if the situation seems to get worse. (That is only a sign that the enemy knows you have won. He's trying to make you think your prayer didn't work and that God's Word is not true. Matt. 13:7, 22 tells us that persecution and afflictions come for the Word's sake. The enemy is trying to get you to forfeit God's Word.)

3. Honor Jesus as Lord.

Honoring Jesus as Lord means we obey Him (Luke 6:46). If we don't obey Him, He's not our Lord. (To read more, request my eBook, "Jesus Is Lord, But Is He Yours?")

It's important to obey Him because He's the One Who leads us in the paths of righteousness that lead to the manifestation of all that we are believing Him for. If we don't obey Him, then we won't follow His directions. We won't turn where He says turn or be still when He says to be still. When we don't follow His directions, we don't get His results.

4. Give God praise like you already see the manifestation of what you are believing for.

Praise is your faith expression to God that you know He has already done it. Praise confuses the enemy (II Chr. 20:1-26).

Have you received a Word of the Lord for 2022 (or for anything at all)? Set your expectation and then create the optimal conditions for it to come to pass.

Activate What You Have Learned

Activate What You Have Received

To God be the glory for the things He has done! I would be remiss if I did not offer you the chance to activate what you have received. If you have been blessed by the things you have learned in this ebook, I would like to encourage you to give, or to “sow on it.”

Sowing in this context is a spiritual principle where one plants finances in the Kingdom of God as a faith expression that they have received the Word that has been taught. It is also a faith expression that says they expect to see that Word manifest in their life. Many would equate this kind of giving to giving an offering, but it is so much more.

When sowing a financial seed into a ministry or church, etc., you are not just giving an offering or making a charitable donation. Sowing a financial seed is what one does when one personally receives the Word that was delivered and earnestly expects to see that Word come to pass in his or her life. It is your faith expression that says you believe the Word you have heard. It is also the impetus that activates the operation of that Word in your life. It is NOT a form of buying a blessing. NEITHER is it a selfish motive of giving to get. Rather, it is a spiritual law – the law of sowing and reaping.

Look with me at Galatians 6:7: Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap (emphasis added). Just as we cannot change the natural law of gravity, we cannot change the spiritual law of sowing and reaping. The next verse (v 8) says: For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

John 6:63 tells us that God’s Word is Spirit and It is life. Therefore, the Word that you are responding to is Spirit. When you sow your financial seed, you are sowing to the Spirit, and of the Spirit, you shall reap life everlasting.

What is life everlasting?

Jesus explained in John 17:3, “And this is life eternal, that they might know Thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, Whom Thou hast sent.” So, when we sow to the Spirit, we reap life everlasting, which consists of an intimate knowledge of God – the Father and Originator of revelation Who wants to reveal every aspect of Himself to us (see James 1:17) – and His Son, Jesus, Who is the Word (John 1:1, 14) and the express Image of His Person (Heb. 1:3). Hallelujah!!!

As you sow your seed, sow it in faith as demonstration that you believe you receive a harvest of this Word in your life. Be blessed, in Jesus' Name.
