WESTERN STONEWARE CO.
MONMOUTH, ILL.

N O T E S

The preceding pages illustrate the most popular line of art and garden pottery on the market today. Constant developments in design and glazes — in keeping with the present day trend—necessitate simplification of catalogs which never do justice to the line.

TOURISTS are invited to visit our factories—two located in Monmouth, Illinois and one in Macomb, Illinois. Display Rooms and Sunken Rock Garden are located adjacent to Plant No. 1 in Monmouth, only a short distance from Illinois Routes No. 3 and No. 8.

DEALERS find it quite convenient and profitable to drive to the factory. We are featuring lamps—all pottery bases to be sure—fully equipped with shades of the very newest and up-to-the-minute patterns. Merchants who find their display space limited may select lamps from stock in any quantity at prices in keeping with the market.

DEALER TERMS: 2%, 10 days, 30 days net.

On Orders of $25.00—no packing charge.

On orders of less than $25.00 actual cost of packing.

POTTERY FOR HOME AND GARDEN

THE manufacture of pottery . . . carried on for centuries . . . finds expression today in all manner of beautiful shapes and designs never dreamed of by the first makers.

The home or garden needs that finishing touch which pottery brings to any setting. A well chosen piece in this corner, another over there; all lend their dignity and charm.

For the home there are vases, utility pieces of all kinds and novelties; for the garden, many decorative as well as useful items. And all, at prices to suit any purse or need.

The Western Stoneware Company has developed at its plant in Monmouth, Illinois, a most beautifully laid out sunken rock garden, visited each year by thousands from all over the country. "An Outdoor Living Room," such as any home may have on its own scale, large or small.

In connection with the rock garden there is also a full display of Monmouth Art and Garden Pottery.

You are invited to address this company when planning gardens or home arrangements for more beautiful settings of art pottery.

THE well-groomed garden should have its full share of large and ornamental pieces of art pottery besides the usual selection of smaller, more intimate pieces. But - - - when necessary - - - even one or two well chosen pieces will add distinction and charm. Decorated lawn jars and brightly polished gazing globes are always popular. Sundials to accent the sunny spot, and bird baths are in good taste. The garden views that follow suggest what might be done with your garden.

STANDARD STONEWARE

WHILE the purpose of this Catalog primarily is to show the Art and Garden Ware, we feel a justified pride in our stoneware line sufficient to at least mention the forward steps that have been taken during the past few months which place the Maple Leaf Brand of Stoneware in a class by itself.

When we classify MAPLE LEAF JARS as STONEWARE DeLUXE we do so with perfect confidence.

The new and distinctive decorative features plus the unusual white and smooth finish never before attained even by "Western" have so nearly placed Maple Leaf Stoneware in the Art Ware Class that we find justification in giving it space in this Catalog.

Instead of sacrificing quality we have improved the quality and appearance during the strenuous times when temptations were greatest to pare expense to meet income.

Standard Stoneware and Stoneware Specialties for every need.

When it bears the Maple Leaf Brand you are assured of the finest stoneware made in the United States.

N O T E S

The preceding pages illustrate the most popular line of art and garden pottery on the market today. Constant developments in design and glazes — in keeping with the present day trend—necessitate simplification of catalogs which never do justice to the line.

TOURISTS are invited to visit our factories—two located in Monmouth, Illinois and one in Macomb, Illinois. Display Rooms and Sunken Rock Garden are located adjacent to Plant No. 1 in Monmouth, only a short distance from Illinois Routes No. 3 and No. 8.

DEALERS find it quite convenient and profitable to drive to the factory. We are featuring lamps—all pottery bases to be sure—fully equipped with shades of the very newest and up-to-the-minute patterns. Merchants who find their display space limited may select lamps from stock in any quantity at prices in keeping with the market.

DEALER TERMS: 2%, 10 days, 30 days net.

On Orders of $25.00—no packing charge.

On orders of less than $25.00 actual cost of packing.
